This publication was developed by the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) in partnership with the World Resources Institute (WRI). It was drafted by Carole Excell, Celine Salcedo-La Viña and Laura Notes of WRI. Experts from government, civil society, the private sector and academia provided inspiration and extremely valuable advice and input, all of which significantly helped shape the guide. In this regard, Adena Leibman, Andrea A. Jacobs, Carl Bruch, Christopher Chin, Clare Romanik, Collins Odote, Eduardo Murat, Giulia Carlini, Hugo Schally, Isabelle Verderbeck, Jill Raval, John Hocevar, Justine Maillot, Marcelo Cousillas, Ryan MacFarlane, Sirine Rached and Summer Coish, who participated in the experts consultations on the guide, deserve a special mention for their contributions.

Clayton Adams, Fatou Ndoye, Isabelle Verderbeck, Jill Raval and Sunday Leonard of UNEP provided significant input during the experts' consultations. Allan Meso, Heidi Savelli-Soderberg and Llorenc Mila I Canals of UNEP provided extensive guidance and reviewed the guide at various stages.

Thanks are also due to the external reviewers, including the focal points for the Montevideo Programme for the Development and Periodic Review of Environmental Law from Burkina Faso, Canada, Chile, Costa Rica, Finland, Germany, Jamaica, Saint Lucia, the United Arab Emirates and the United States of America and the secretariat of the Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm conventions.

Special thanks go to Andrew Raine (UNEP) and Kevin Moss (WRI) for their invaluable support throughout the process, and to Susannah Keys (WRI), who provided administrative support for the development of the guide and the annexes. The Government of Norway provided invaluable funding for this project through UNEP.
