- Knowledge sharing
- Linking local governments

URBAN SDG
KNOWLEDGE PLATFORM

CITYNET

THE REGIONAL NETWORK OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES
FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF HUMAN SETTLEMENTS

Both the Urban SDG Knowledge Platform and CityNet
aims to connect cities for sustainable development

So how can the Knowledge Platform help my city?

So how can the Knowledge Platform help my city?

1. Cities can tangibly benefit from the platform

- Launching pad for city-to-city collaboration
- Receive meaningful insights from the lessons learned from similar projects
- Find projects for cities of all sizes and stages of development that can be immediately benchmarked

2. Cities can interact with one another on the platform

- Disseminate Knowledge
- Share new ideas and practices

1A. Launching pad for city-to-city collaboration

- Knowledge Platform allows cities to contact other cities to initiate city-to-city collaboration in project implementation
- CityNet can support and coordinate city-led initiatives by tailored programmes such as CityNet Services

1B. Receive meaningful insights

- Cities have the opportunity to lessen the risk of policy implementation by already having access to policy impacts and lessons learned
- Publications and regular dissemination of new insights and practices will keep your city on the loop of sustainable development
