2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Transport

- 2015 Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)
- Transport was not part of the MDGs framework for 2000-2015.
- The transport community considered this as a missed opportunity in view of the strong linkage between economic development and transport.

2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Transport

- With the new Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) recently adopted, transport is given another opportunity to profile as a key sector contributing to sustainable development and climate change goals from now until 2030.
- Sustainable transport is not represented by a distinct goal within the SDG framework - transport is mainstreamed into many of the SDGs which underscores the importance of transport as a critical “enabler” of other sectors’ achievements

2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Transport

- The SDG framework includes five targets that are directly related to transport

- Additionally, transport is enabling achievement in other sector's targets such as rural investment (target 2.1, 2.a), air pollution (target 3.9), access to drinking water (target 6.1), reduction of food loss (target 12.3) and climate change adaptation and mitigation (target 13.1)

Post-2015 Development Agenda

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Transport

- Goal 3: Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages
- Target 3.6: By 2020, halve the number of global deaths and injuries from road traffic accidents

Post-2015 Development Agenda

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Transport

- Goal 11: Make cities and human settlements inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable
- Target 11.2: By 2030, provide access to safe, affordable, accessible and sustainable transport systems for all, improving road safety, notably by expanding public transport, with special attention to the needs of those in vulnerable situations, women, children, persons with
