

Regional Consultative Workshop on El Niño in Asia-Pacific Country Presentation

Papua New Guinea

By
Andrew E. Oaego

7-9 June 2016
Bangkok, Thailand

El Niño Impact

- Livelihood of communities

- Food -
- Water sources – Creeks dried up, contam
- Cash crops

- Education Sector

- Schools temporarily closed
- Attending half-day classes

- Health Sector

- Operations scaled down
- Diseases

- Social/Cultural issues

- Economy

2.7 million People estimated to be in categories 2 - 5

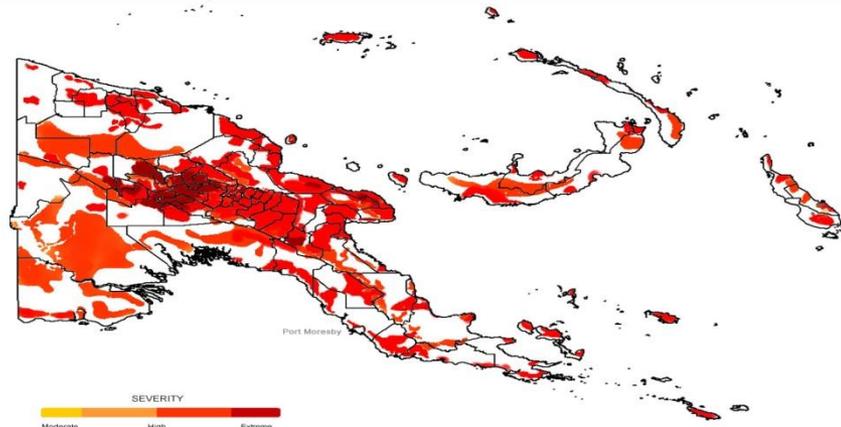

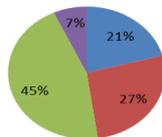

60% - 70% require immediate relief assistance

94% of total budget required for food assistance

PAPUA NEW GUINEA : Drought Severity Profile

Proportion of Affected Population in Categories 2-5 in four Regions of PNG

■ Southern Region ■ NGI Region ■ Highlands Region ■ Momase

Source: NDC PNG Rapid Assessment Progressive Reports October 2015 | Indication of Impact Categories based on Food, Health and Water Conditions and the Estimated Population Density.

Response Actions to El Niño

■ Government:

- General Coordination;
 - Rapid Assessment
 - Weekly coordination meetings
- Humanitarian Relief Aid
 - PGK20.m
 - 2,683 metric-tons of relief aid

■ Humanitarian Partners:

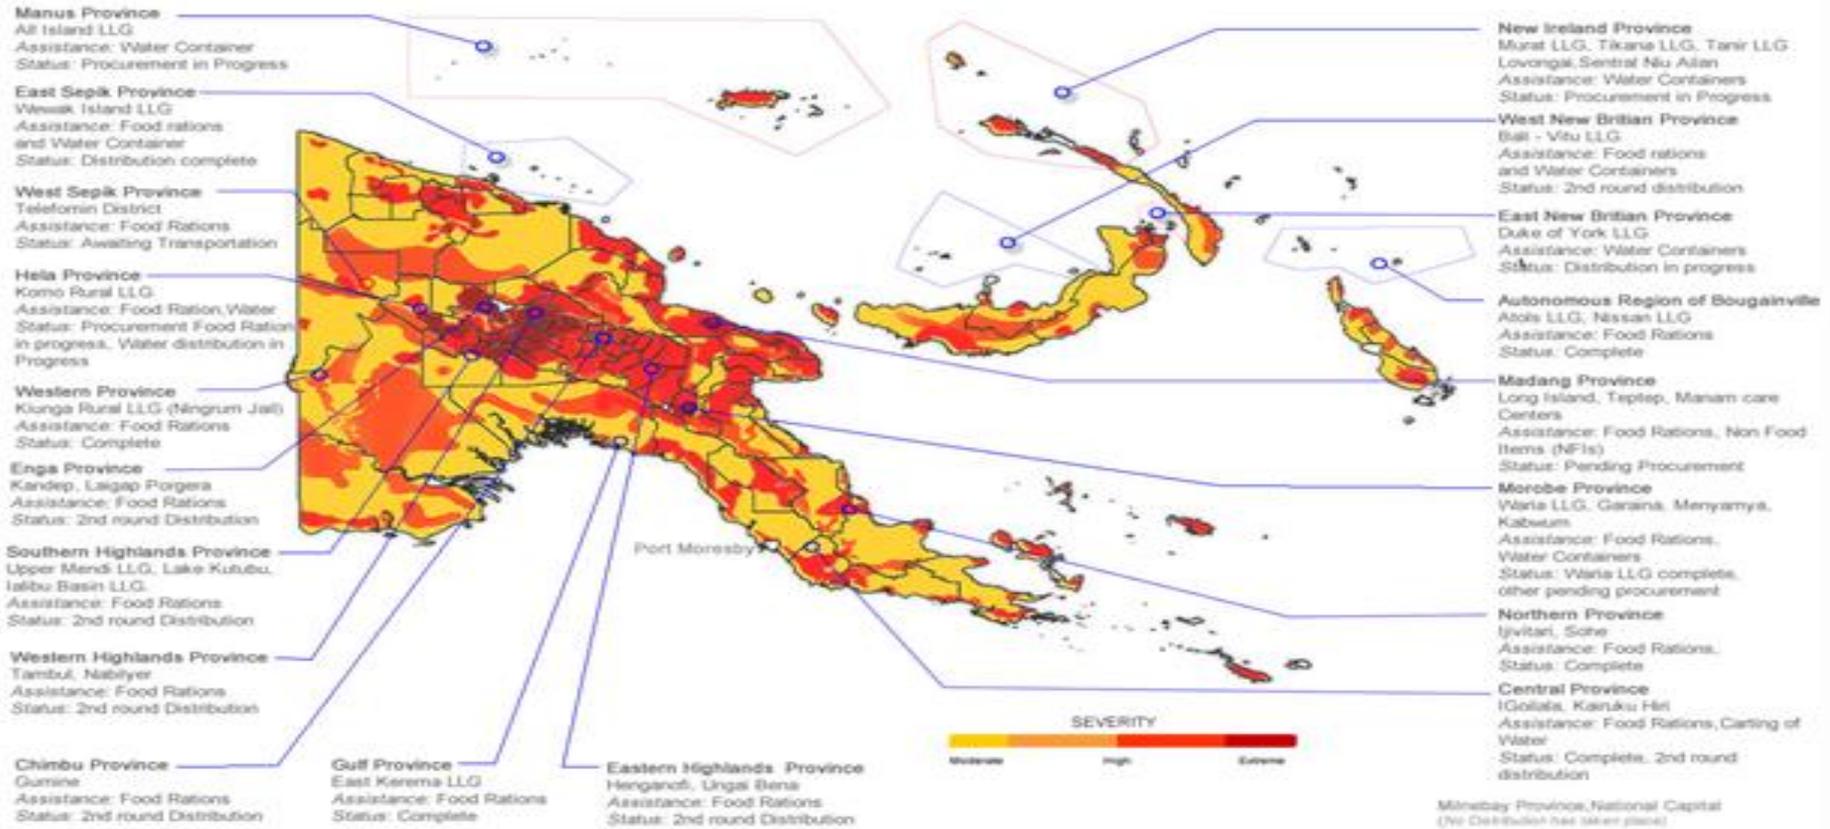

- UN Agencies - UNICEF, WFP, FAO, UNDP
- IOM
- Bilateral Partners – AusAID NZAID, USAID, ECHO,
- Faith based – Uniting world, Caritas, SDA
- INGO's – Save the children, OXFAM, World Vision, Care International

■ Private Sector:

- Exxon Mobil
- Inter Oil
- Ok Tedi Foundation
- Digicel Foundation
- Coca Cola

Response Actions to El Niño

Drought Relief Support and Distribution

National Disaster Centre of Papua New Guinea

Relief Distribution conducted by the National and Provincial Governments since September 2015.

Challenges

- Logistics capability to access remote areas.
- Quality of assessment and situation reports.
- Coordination issues with PDC's & DDA's.
- Appropriate data and Information management.
- Communications.
- Roles & Responsibilities' of INGO'S

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_3058

