The Republic of The Union of Myanmar

Current Status and Future Direction of ICT in Myanmar

Nwe Ni Soe Yin

Deputy Chief Engineer

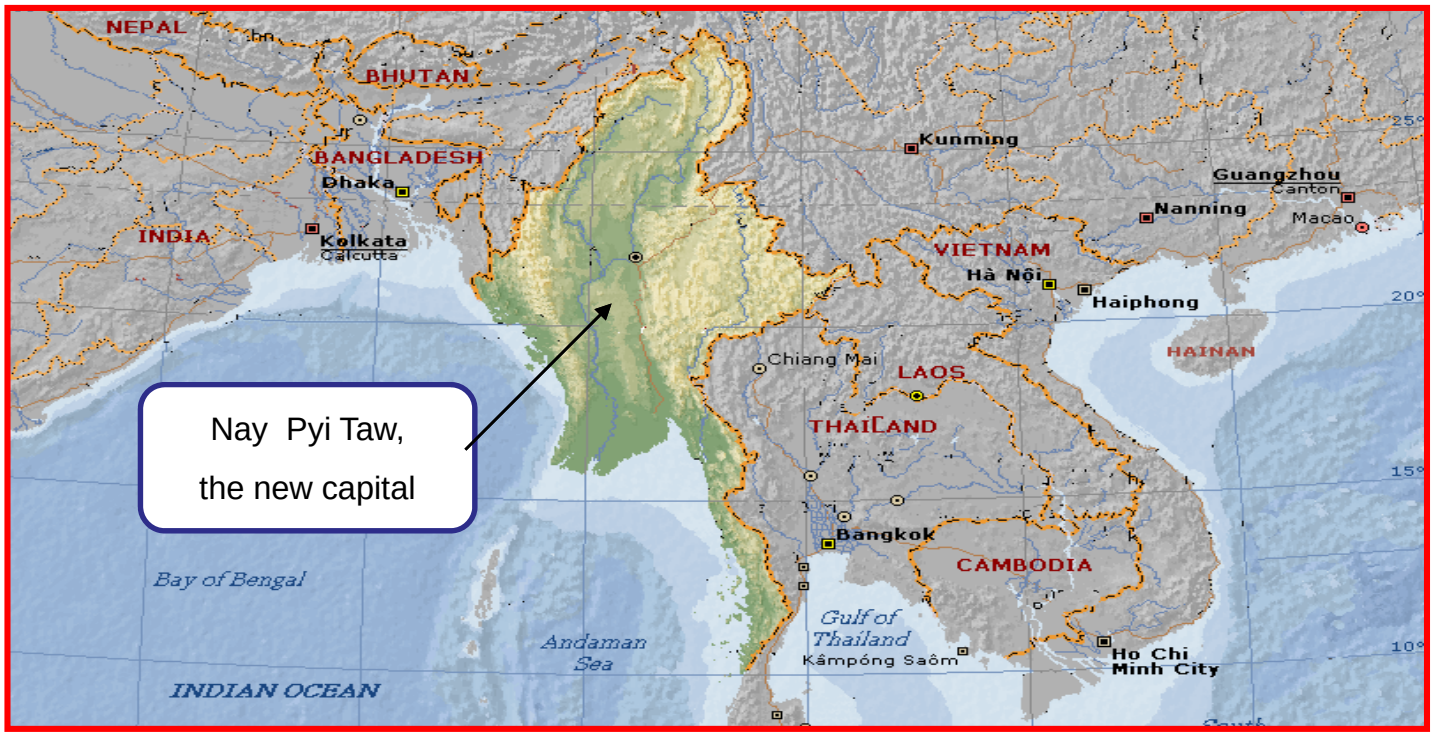
Ministry of Communications and Information Technology

Myanmar.

1, October 2014

A Glance into Myanmar

Geography



- largest on the mainland in South-East Asia
- total land area: 676,577 square kilometer
- total coastal line length: 2832 kilometer.
- International borders: 5858 Kilometer (Bangladesh, India, China, Thailand and Laos)
- Topography 50% of mountains and forests (northern and eastern)

General Information

- Population: 60 million
- Ethnic groups 135
- States & Divisions: 14
- Capital: Nay Pyi Taw
- Urban, rural ratio: 30:70
- Economy: Agriculture
- Languages : Myanmar

Myanmar ICT Policy

- Transformed from a closed to an open market economy.

- To growth Economic development

  as the first priority.

- More efficient and effective ICT services to Government and Citizen.

Myanmar ICT Infrastructure

- Most basic and important part in ICT development.
- A key driving force to reduce the digital divide.
- Essential prerequisite for e-Government, e-Commerce, e-Education, etc.....
- Should have broadband data network to be integrating with globalization.

➲ Current ICT Infrastructure Status

- Telephone

Density	12%
Total Lines	6.6 M
Fixed Lines	0.6 M
Mobile lines	6.0 M

- Switching

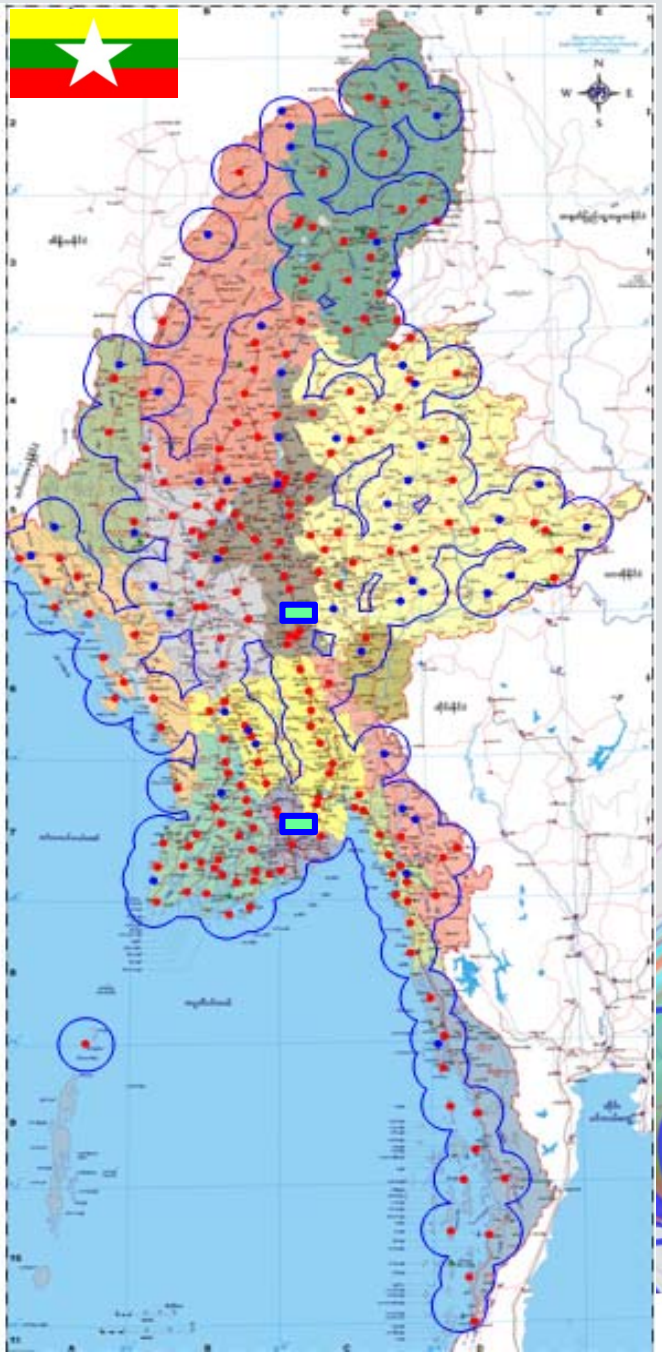
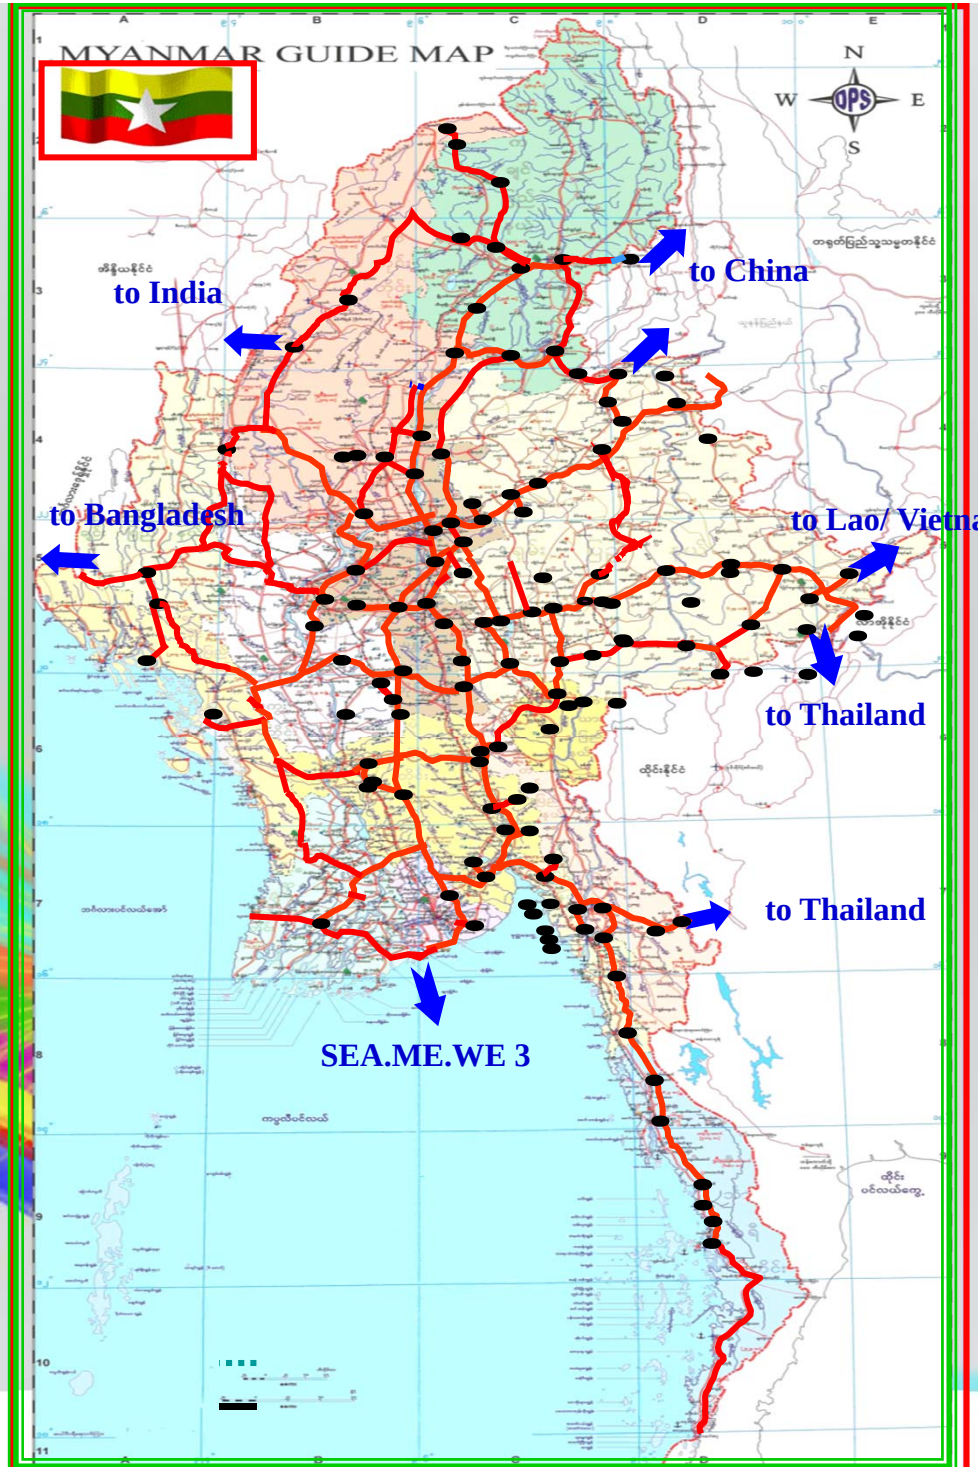
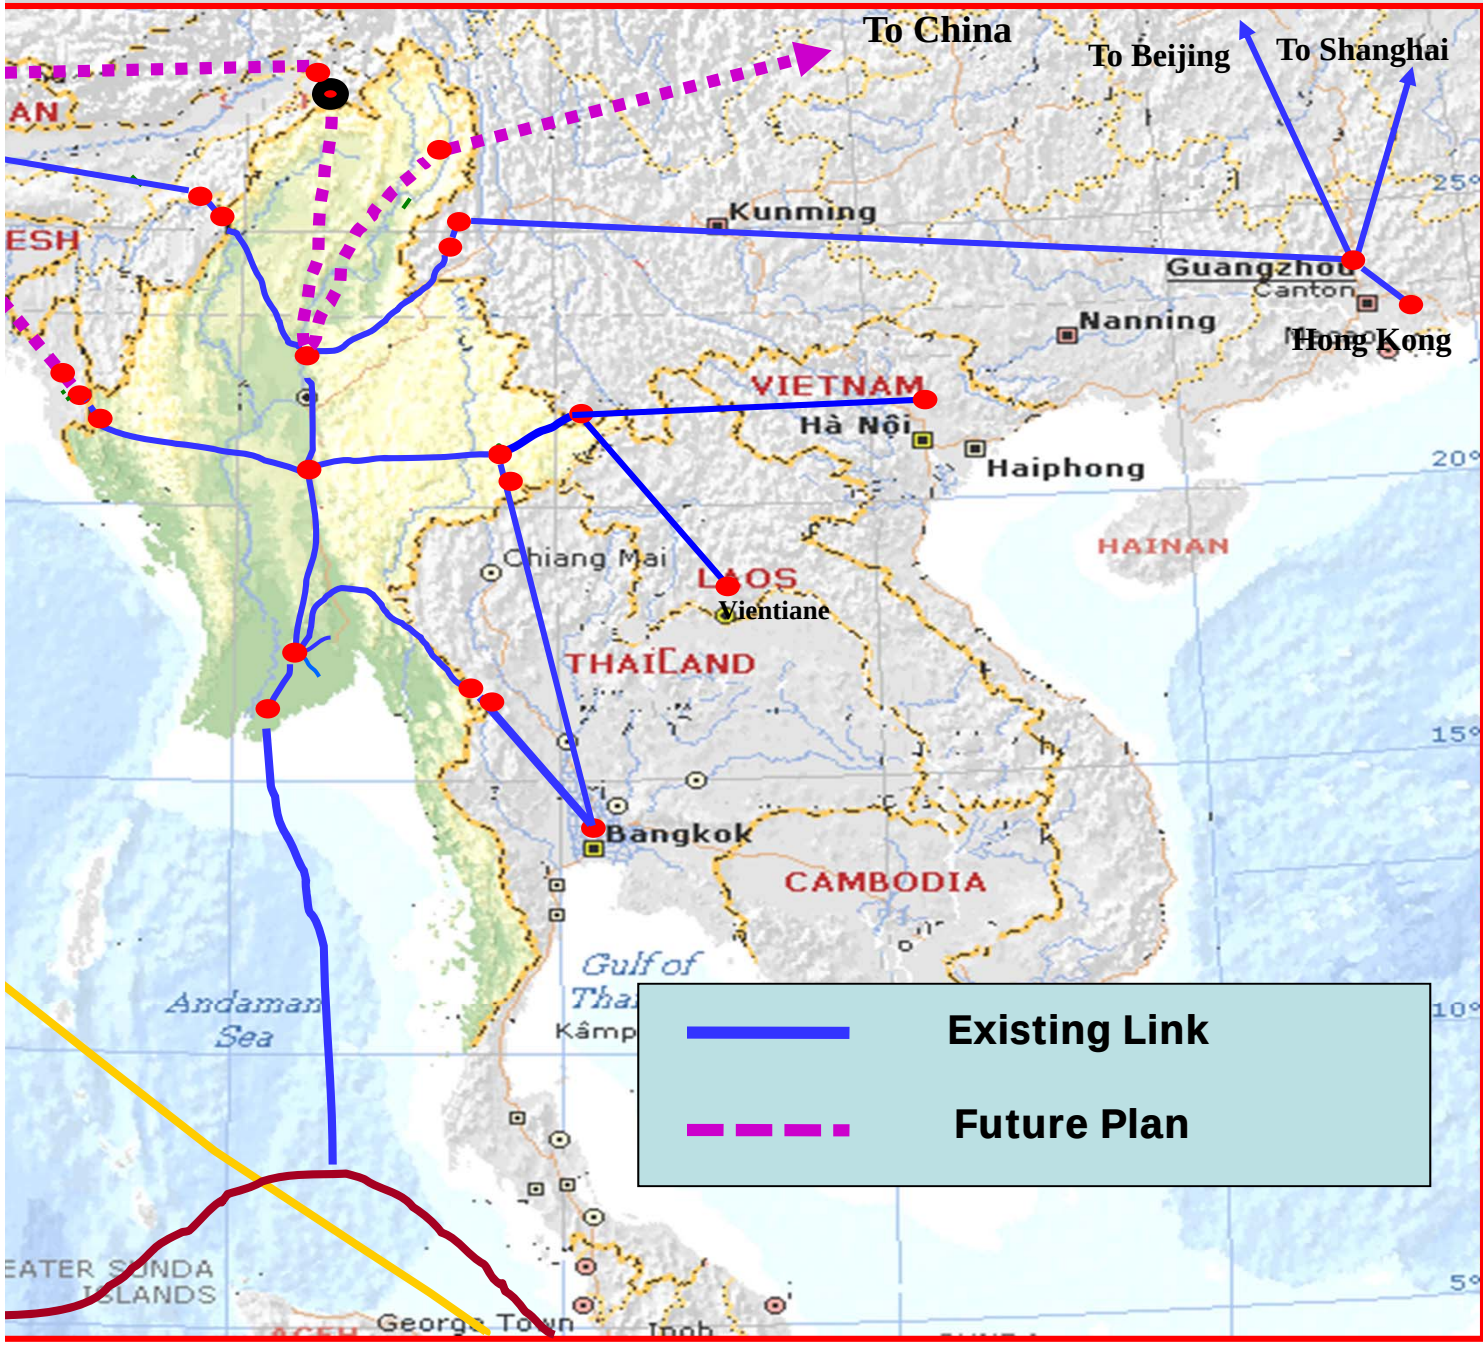
International	2
Local	915
Transit	11
Rural Phone	234
Mobile	10





National Transmission Broadband Network

- Fiber link
- Microwave Stations

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：
https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_5034


ional Cross-Border Fiber Cable Link