

SESSION 4. THE NEED FOR RENEWED PARTNERSHIP FOR DEVELOPMENT

National Economic and Development Authority
Philippines

25 June 2014

Sub-regional Advocacy Workshop on MDGs for South East Asia
Lao Plaza Hotel, Lao People's Democratic Republic

Assumptions for Renewed Partnership

- Regional cooperation accelerates the attainment of sustained and rapid economic growth, reducing poverty, and economic disparity.
- Countries will continue with the unfinished MDGs
- Shared vision of inclusive development

Regional cooperation should provide public goods that would mitigate the realization of risks

- Ensure financial stability
- Knowledge sharing
- Effective control of communicable diseases
- Disaster risk reduction, quick recovery from natural disasters
- Climate change adaptation
- Ensure peace and security

Challenges for effective regional cooperation in support the implementation of a post 2015 development agenda

- Building stronger cooperation through improved data production: timeliness, regularity, reliability → quick and informed decisions
  - Comparable: standard operational definition
  - Common time period/s
  - Early warning/red flag for share development agenda: no only SDG indicators but indicators for risks factors
- Continuing capacity building
  - Data collection, analysis, financing options

Challenges for effective regional cooperation in support the implementation of a post 2015 development agenda (cont'd)

- Financing: availability and sustainability
  - Predictability of ODA
  - Continuing discussion towards a fair trading system and a stable financial system
  - Debt management and sustainability
- Innovation
