5. For better communication with participants while in Beirut, it would be appreciated if participants could inform the ESCAP Secretariat which hotel they will be accommodated in.

PAYMENT OF HOTEL ACCOUNTS

6. Before departure from Beirut, participants are expected to settle directly with their respective hotel all accounts, including room charges and other expenses, such as for local and long-distance telephone calls, internet use, business center use, laundry, room and hotel transportation services, mini-bar items, as well as restaurant and bar services. Participants are also responsible for any charges incurred with respect to rooms remaining vacant owing to their late arrival or rescheduled departure for which inadequate prior notice is given.

ENTRY VISAS TO LEBANON

7. Nationals of selected countries can obtain visa on arrival for the duration of one month. The standard list of these countries can be obtained from the Lebanese General Security website at:

<http://www.general-security.gov.lb/English/Entrance%20Visas/Pages/visaa4.aspx>.

8. Nationals from other countries are requested to obtain entry visas through the Embassy of Lebanon in their respective countries. Participants from countries in the ESCAP region where there is no Lebanese Embassy should send a color-scanned electronic copy of their passport to ESCAP at least five weeks before the date of the Workshop and appropriate visa arrangements will be made in cooperation with ESCWA. ESCAP and ESCWA will not be able to assist with visa arrangements if passport details are received after 20 May 2011.

ARRIVAL AT THE AIRPORT

9. The Beirut Rafik Hariri International Airport is the only international airport in Lebanon. It is approximately 10-15 minutes from downtown Beirut. Participants should make their own arrangements from and to the airport. Some hotels offer airport pick-up at a fixed rate. Private taxi companies can also be arranged at the airport. The fare usually ranges between US $ 20-25.

WORKING LANGUAGE OF THE WORKSHOP

10. The Workshop will be held in English. Simultaneous interpretation into and from English and Arabic will be provided.

WEATHER

11. The weather in Beirut at the end of June is normally hot and humid with an average temperature of 25°C and no or little rainfalls. Participants are recommended to check the weather forecast before the meeting through the internet, for example at <http://www.weather-forecast.com/locations/Beirut/forecasts/latest>.

HEALTH AND VACCINATION

12. The United Nations buildings are smoke-free areas. Participants are allowed to smoke only in the designated areas. Yellow fever vaccination is required for participants from countries where the disease is endemic. Participants are recommended to have had vaccinations against food-borne diseases, such as hepatitis A, tetanus and typhoid.
