

Introduction to ESCAP SRO-ENEA

Peter Van Laere
Director, SRO-ENEA

Process towards SRO-ENEA

UN GA Resolution 63/260 (Dec 2008):
Effective and efficient delivery of UN mandates on development-related activities

65th ESCAP Commission Session (April 2009): Programme of work for 2010-2011 for subprogramme 8 on subregional cooperation

EGM (Oct 2009) and IGM (March 2010) of ENEA countries for priority work of the SRO

Inauguration of the SRO-ENEA on 17 May 2010

Major Goal and Roles of SRO-ENEA

Inclusive and Sustainable Development in AP region

Strengthening the foundation of subregional cooperation

Supporting Commission
Work

Partnership among governments/ multi-stakeholders

Analysis of subregional challenges and Subregional knowledge sharing

Linking the subregion with the Commission

Priority Areas of SRO Work

Inclusive and Sustainable development

Environment
(NEASPEC)
Energy (efficiency)

Poverty Reduction (inclusive development)

Transport/
Trade Facilitation

ICT/ Disaster
Risk
Reduction

Internationally-agreed development goals, in particular MDGs

Environment

- Greening economic growth and improving eco-efficiency of economy
- Addressing transboundary challenges such as air pollution, nature conservation in transboundary areas, dust and sandstorms
- Supporting cooperation among member States and major-stakeholders for the application of innovative approaches

National CO2 Emissions, 1990-2006

and Inclusive Development

Progress in MDGs in East Asia

consistent and challenges such er issues, youth
, social health,
o-economic rights
roups, etc peration among and major r addressing cial disparity nber States to specific

s or deterioration sufficient to reach target efficient to reach target t or very close to meeting target

Goal 1	Reduce extreme poverty by half Productive and decent employment Reduce hunger by half
Goal 2	Universal primary schooling
Goal 3	Equal girls' enrolment in primary school Women's share of paid employment Women's equal representation in national parliaments
Goal 4	Reduce mortality of under-5-year-olds by two thirds
Goal 5	Reduce maternal mortality by three quarters
	Access to reproductive health
Goal 6	Halt and reverse spread of HIV/AIDS Halt and reverse spread of tuberculosis
Goal 7	Reverse loss of forests
	Halve proportion without improved drinking water Halve proportion without sanitation Improve the lives of slum dwellers
Goal 8	Internet users

Source: MDGs 2010 Progress Chart (Statistics Division, UN DESA)