

Strengths and weaknesses of regional knowledge networks such as APTN on sharing knowledge and improving livelihood of rural communities

Regional Workshop on Knowledge Hubs & Networks – Next steps

Bangkok, Thailand

10/12/2009

Dil Piyaratna, Programme Head, ICTA

J.K Perera, Consultant, ICTA

Asia Pacific Telecentre Network (APTN)

Target Groups in the rural communities

- Unemployed youth
- Self employed individuals
- Public sector employees
- Farmers
- Pensioners
- Women's groups
- SME's
- Students

Needs of the rural communities

- Employment creation
- Income Generation
- Good Governance
- Empowerment
- Equal opportunities
- Human Development
- Improvement in quality of life
- Socio-economic development
- Improvement of national infrastructure
- Easy access to Government services

e.g: 600 Knowledge Centres for the Rural Community in Sri Lanka

National telecentre network of Sri Lanka funded by the Government

Nenasala operators' capacity building and skills development

Nenasala Operators knowledge sharing at an international conference

Promoting Awareness of the Telcentres in Sri Lanka

H.E President Mahinda Rajapaksa launching a 'Nenasala' at Priyangala Temple in Kekirawa in North Central Sri Lanka

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_8101

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下： es (Knowledge Hubs) or National only provide partial support towards g rural communities in the current globalized world or Global Knowledge Networks

