ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This review was commissioned by UNFPA's Regional Office for Eastern Europe and Central Asia. Consultant Elisa Levy conducted the research and wrote the publication; it was edited by Lois Jensen. Raquel Wexler coordinated the research project and publication process for the regional office.

Contributions from the following country office staff and partners were crucial to the success of this project: Meltem Adguk, Nazik Isik, Tunga Tuzer, Gokhan Yildirimkaya (Turkey), Ionela Cozos, Mihai Horga, Elena Micheu, Stela Serghiuta (Romania), Vahe Gyulkhasyan, Garik Hayrapetyan, Jina Sargizova (Armenia), and Andrey Poshtaruk and Borys Vornyk (Ukraine).

Special thanks to the staff of the Regional Office for Eastern Europe and Central Asia, including Karen Daduryan and Marta Diavolova, and to UNFPA's Gender, Human Rights and Culture Branch, including Aminata Toure, Gayle Nelson, Upala Devi and Leyla Sharafi.

The project team would also like to acknowledge UNFPA staff and national consultants who handled the logistics and translated interviews, including Meltem Agduk and Duygu Arig (Turkey), Elena Micheu (Romania), Hovhannes Poghosyan (Armenia), and Andriy Maksymovych (Ukraine). We would also like to thank Nezih Tavlas in the UNFPA Turkey Country Office who facilitated the design and printing of this document.
