

Time to Teach

Teacher attendance and time on task in primary schools

Nigeria

Spogmai Akseer and Ximena Játiva

October 2021

UNICEF OFFICE OF RESEARCH – INNOCENTI

The Office of Research – Innocenti is UNICEF's dedicated research centre. It undertakes research on emerging or current issues in order to inform the strategic direction, policies and programmes of UNICEF and its partners, shape global debates on child rights and development, and inform the global research and policy agenda for all children, and particularly for the most vulnerable.

Office of Research – Innocenti publications are contributions to a global debate on children and may not necessarily reflect UNICEF policies or approaches.

The Office of Research – Innocenti receives financial support from the Government of Italy, while funding for specific projects is also provided by other governments, international institutions and private sources, including UNICEF National Committees.

The findings, interpretations and conclusions expressed in this paper are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of UNICEF.

This paper has been peer reviewed both externally and within UNICEF.

The text has not been edited to official publications standards and UNICEF accepts no responsibility for errors.

Extracts from this publication may be freely reproduced with due acknowledgement. Requests to utilize larger portions or the full publication should be addressed to the Communications Unit at: Florence@unicef.org.

Any part of this publication may be freely reproduced if accompanied by the following citation: S. Akseer and Játiva X., Time to Teach – Teacher attendance and time on task in primary schools in Nigeria, UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti, Florence, 2021.

Correspondence should be addressed to:

UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti
Via degli Alfani, 58
50121 Florence, Italy

Tel: (+39) 055 20 330

Fax: (+39) 055 2033 220

florence@unicef.org

www.unicef-irc.org

twitter: @UNICEFInnocenti

facebook.com/UnicefInnocenti

© 2021 United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)

Cover photo: ©UNICEF/UN0269861

Editorial production: Dali Mwagore, UNICEF Innocenti

Graphic design: Small World Stories

Time to Teach

Teacher attendance and time on task
in primary schools
in Nigeria

Spogmai Akseer and Ximena Játiva

October 2021

Acknowledgements

This report was produced by a team of researchers at the UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti. The study was managed by Matt Brossard, coordinated by Despina Karamperidou and written by Spogmai Akseer and Ximena Játiva. Rachel Yang Zhou, Idinin Jerome Adjimoti, and Silvia Peirolo provided exceptional research assistance. Lara Stefanizzi and Amparo Barrera offered invaluable administrative support to the team.

The team would like to acknowledge the guidance of Gunilla Olsson (Director, UNICEF Office of Research), Priscilla Idele (Deputy Director, UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti) and the many UNICEF colleagues who assisted the planning and drafting process. Christine (Yue) Han (former UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti), who supported inception and training missions in participating countries, deserves special mention. The team is also indebted to Cecilia Baldeh, Haleinta Bara Traore and Haritz Goya Lujambio (UNICEF West and Central Africa Regional Office), Murtala Mohammed, Terry Durnnian, Euphrates Efosi Wose, and Rudranarayan Sahoo (UNICEF Nigeria) for their excellent comments and for facilitating in-country data collection. Invaluable editorial and communications support was provided by Dali Mwangore, Dale Rutstein, Kathleen Sullivan, and Silke Rechenbach (all UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti).

Specific thanks go to Hamid Bobboyi (Executive Secretary, Universal Basic Education Committee) and the management of the State Universal Basic Education Boards in Kano, Bauchi, Benue, Oyo, Enugu, and Bayelsa, for facilitating meetings with key stakeholders.

The research team is deeply indebted to the external reviewers, Dr. Mika'ila Barau (Technical Adviser, Education, FHI 360 Nigeria) and Zulfiqar Ali (Head of Education, Save the Children Nigeria), for their excellent comments on the report draft, and to the 653 study participants (teachers, head teachers, pupils, community representatives, state and local level education officers, and national officials), who generously shared their time, experience, and materials.

Contents

Acknowledgements	4
Abbreviations	8
Executive summary	9
Overview	9
Main findings	10
Section 1: Introduction	13
1.1 Research background and rationale	13
1.2 Research objectives	16
1.3 Definition, data and methods	16
1.4 Report organization	18
Section 2: Key findings	19
How frequently are teachers absent?	19
Why are primary school teachers absent?	23
2.1 National level factors	23
2.2 Subnational national level factors	28
2.3 Community level factors	31
2.4 School level factors	36
2.5 Teacher level factors	41
Section 3: Policy implications and recommendations	45
References	49
Annexes	53
Annex 1. Primary education statistics in Nigeria	53
Annex 2. Recent national education initiatives prior to and during COVID-19	56
Annex 3. Data collection and analysis methods	57
Annex 4. Study limitations	58
Annex 6. Absenteeism and selected teacher characteristics	59
Annex 7. Views and opinions related to teacher absenteeism on a selection of statements	61

Index of figures

Figure 1. School enrollment in primary schools in Nigeria, 1971-2015	13
Figure 2. Time to Teach explanatory framework	17
Figure 3. Self-reported frequency of teacher absenteeism in primary schools	19
Figure 4. Top five factors affecting absence from school – by location, gender, and school type	21
Figure 5. Top five factors affecting teacher's punctuality – by location, gender, and school type	21
Figure 6. Top five factors causing classroom absenteeism – by location, gender, and school type	22
Figure 7. Top five factors limiting teacher's time on task – by location, gender, and type of school	22
Figure 8. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – remuneration and job satisfaction	24
Figure 9. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – knowledge and training	25
Figure 10. Share of teachers mentioning 'strikes' as a motivation for absenteeism – by state and type of absenteeism	27
Figure 11. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – school inspectors monitoring	29
Figure 12. Proportion of teachers mentioning 'weather' as a motivation for absenteeism – by state and type of absenteeism	31
Figure 13. How teachers get to school during rainy and dry season – by locality and school type	32
Figure 14. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – role of the community	35
Figure 15. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – role of the head teacher	36
Figure 16. Opinions of teachers on selected statements related to absenteeism – school environment	40

Index of tables

Table 1. Number of study participants, by level of analysis and data collection method	18
Table 2. Trends in primary education in Nigeria	53
Table 3. Trends in teacher statistics in public primary schools	53
Table 4. Primary education statistics in 2018, by school type and zone	54
Table 5. Primary school teacher statistics in 2018, by school type and geopolitical zone	55
Table 6. Survey data summary statistics on selected teacher characteristics, by school level	57
Table 7. Absenteeism and selected teacher characteristics	60
Table 8. Views and opinions on a selection of statements, by location and gender	62
Table 9. Views and opinions on a selection of statements, by school type	64
Table 10. Views and opinions on a selection of statements, by type of absenteeism	65
Table 10. Views and opinions on a selection of statements by type of absenteeism (continued)	66

Abbreviations

FGD	Focus group discussion
FGoN	Federal Government of Nigeria
FMoE	Federal Ministry of Education
FTM	Federal Teacher Scheme
IDI	In-depth interview
LGA	Local government authority
LGE	Local government education
NCE	Nigeria Certificate of Education
NHSMP	Nigerian Home-Grown School Meal Program
NUT	Nigerian Union of Teachers
NTEP	National Teacher Education Policy
PTA	Parent Teacher Association
SBMC	School-based management committee
SUBEB	State Universal Basic Education Board
TLM	Teaching and learning material
TTT	Time to Teach
UBE	Universal basic education
UBEC	Universal Basic Education Commission

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5\_5869

