

Children's Equitable Access to Justice:

Central and Eastern Europe and Central Asia

> ALBANIA > GEORGIA > KYRGYZSTAN > MONTENEGRO

IN COOPERATION WITH  IDLO

unicef

Cover photo: © UNICEF/NYHQ2011-1647/Pirozzi

Aysun, 13, who previously lived on the streets, learns to weave a carpet at the Umid Yeri ('Place of Hope') Children's Shelter and Rehabilitation Centre in Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan.

© United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
The Regional Office for Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States (CEE/CIS),
May 2015

Permission is required to reproduce any part of this publication. Permission will be freely granted to educational or non-profit organizations.

To request permission and for any other information on the publication, please contact:

United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
Regional Office for Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States (CEE/CIS)
Palais des Nations
CH-1211 Geneva 10
Switzerland
Tel.: +41 22 909 5000
Fax: +41 22 909 5909
Email: ceecis@unicef.org
<www.unicef.org/ceecis>
<www.facebook.com/unicefceecis>
<www.twitter.com/unicefceecis>

All reasonable precautions have been taken by UNICEF to verify the information contained in this publication.

Suggested citation:
United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF),
The Regional Office for CEE/CIS,
Children's Equitable Access to Justice,
Central and Eastern Europe and
Central Asia, UNICEF, Geneva, 2015.

Children's Equitable Access to Justice:

Central and Eastern Europe and Central Asia

> ALBANIA > GEORGIA > KYRGYZSTAN > MONTENEGRO

Acknowledgements

The research study was produced under the direction of Anne Grandjean (UNICEF Regional Office for Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States).

Special thanks go to Pamela Kovacs (International Development Law Organization) and Meagan Smith Hrle (independent consultant) and the following team of researchers for their work: Bakai Albanov (research associate, Kyrgyzstan), Mirajidin Arynov (research associate, Kyrgyzstan), Debika Chatterjee (data analyst), Aleksandra Crvenica (research associate, Montenegro), Veronika Duci Ntoutsu (research consultant on ethical and child-sensitive research), Migena Leskoviku (research associate, Albania), Tea

Machaidze (research associate, Georgia), Ayesha Mago (senior lead researcher), Mona Paré (editor) and Maya Velimirovic (research associate, Montenegro). Other IDLO contributors included: Renee Chartres, Tim Fletcher, Rimma Grishmanovskaya, Sean Lees, Margarita Milikh, Lyal Sunga and Zuzana Zalanova, under the direction of the IDLO Research and Learning Department, led by Ilaria Bottiglieri.

The report benefited from the valuable input and advice of an expert advisory group: Claude Cahn (Human Rights Adviser to the Office of the United Nations Resident Coordinator in the Republic of Moldova, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights), Jeff Erlich (Programme Manager, Equal Before the Law:

Access to Justice in Central Asia, Eurasia Foundation of Central Asia), Oliver Lewis (Executive Director, Mental Disability Advocacy Center, Budapest, Hungary), Dan O'Donnell (independent consultant), Professor Ann Skelton (Director, Centre for Child Law, University of Pretoria, Pretoria, South Africa), Professor Geraldine Van Bueren QC (Professor of International Human Rights Law and Visiting Fellow, Kellogg College, Oxford, UK) and Nevena Vuckovic-Sahovic (professor of law, Union University, Belgrade, Serbia, and former member of the United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child).

Valuable input was also provided by Patrick Geary (UNICEF Private Fundraising and Partnerships), Nela Krnic-Brkovic (UNICEF Montenegro), Teona

Kuchava (UNICEF Georgia), Paolo Marchi (UNICEF Bosnia and Herzegovina), Lesley Miller, Lely Djuhari (UNICEF Regional Office for CEE/CIS), Leon Shestani (UNICEF Albania), Ingrid van Welzenis (independent consultant) and Elena Zaichenko (UNICEF Kyrgyzstan). Copy-editing was by Lisa Drysdale and graphic design by Phoenix Design Aid.

We are particularly grateful to the many children, family members and justice sector professionals who participated in the research and shared their insights.

The report was made possible by core funding to UNICEF and by UNICEF Child Protection thematic funds (multiple donors).

Contents

Graphs, tables and boxes	6
Chapter 1: Executive summary	8
Chapter 2: Background	14
2.1 Introduction	14
2.2 Objectives and methodology	14
Chapter 3: A matter of rights, rule of law and development	18
3.1 Elevating access to justice for children across key international agendas	18
3.2 Accessing justice: Beyond children's reach?	18
3.3 Compounded challenges for children	19
Chapter 4: International and regional legal and policy framework	22
4.1 Relevant international standards	23
4.2 Regional framework: Central and Eastern Europe and Central Asia	28
Chapter 5: Children's access to justice across the region	34
5.1 Regional overview	34
5.2 National legal frameworks across the four focal countries	39
5.2.1 Albania	39
5.2.2 Georgia	39
5.2.3 Kyrgyzstan	40
5.2.4 Montenegro	40
Chapter 6: Research findings: A cross-country overview	50
6.1 Why do children become involved in justice systems or processes?	50
6.1.1 Child victims or witnesses of crime	51
6.1.2 Issues related to the family	52
6.1.3 Denial and violations of rights and social benefits	53

ACRONYMS

COE	Council of Europe
EU	European Union
EC	European Commission
IDLO	International Development Law Organization
NGO	non-governmental organization
UN	United Nations
UNICEF	United Nations Children's Fund
UNDP	United Nations Development Programme

6.2 Where do children go to seek justice?	54
6.2.1 Judicial forums	54
6.2.2 Administrative bodies	55
6.2.3 Ombudspersons/national human rights institutions	58
6.2.4 Alternative dispute resolution forums	60
6.2.5 Informal justice systems	61
6.3 What are the main obstacles that children face in seeking justice?	66
6.3.1 Lack of awareness of justice mechanisms and supporting institutions	66
6.3.2 Poor access to information on children's rights and their realization	69
6.3.3 Legal and practical obstacles	74
6.3.4 Social and cultural obstacles	80
6.4 Are justice mechanisms and processes child-sensitive?	85
6.4.1 Specialization of professionals	87
6.4.2 Measures to protect children from discrimination	89
6.4.3 Guaranteeing the right to be informed	91
6.4.4 Guaranteeing the right to be heard and to express views	92
6.4.5 Provision of psychological and social support services	93
6.4.6 Provision of witness support services	94
6.4.7 Accessing legal assistance and legal aid	97
6.4.8 Protecting the right to privacy	98
6.4.9 Protecting children from hardship and ensuring their right to safety	99
6.4.10 Fulfilling the right to reparation	106
6.4.11 Taking decisions in the best interests of the child	107
Chapter 7: Conclusions and recommendations	116
7.1 Conclusions	116
7.2 Recommendations	120
Appendix: Study methodology	126
Photography credits and captions	134

Graphs, tables and boxes

GRAPHS
1	Opinions of justice sector professionals on the primary reasons children become involved in justice systems or processes: Child victims or witnesses of crime	51
2	Opinions of justice sector professionals on the primary reasons children become involved in justice systems or processes: Issues related to family	52
3	Opinions of justice sector professionals on the primary reasons children become involved in justice systems or processes: Violations of rights	53
4	Responses by children and their family members to 'Do you know what human rights are?'	69
5	Responses by children and their family members to 'Do you know what child rights are?'	69
6	Responses by children and their family members to 'Do you think all children have the same rights?'	73
7	Responses by justice sector professionals on reasons children in vulnerable situations are less likely to be aware of their rights	74
8	Responses by justice sector professionals on whether there are provisions requiring the special training of judges, prosecutors, lawyers and other authorities that bring decisions affecting children	88
9	Responses by justice sector professionals on whether special provisions are made available for children in vulnerable situations	90
10	Responses by justice sector professionals on whether children are provided with clear, child-sensitive information in their own language about what to expect throughout the justice process	92

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_6227

