

THE HANDBOOK ON GENDER-RESPONSIVE

POLICE SERVICES

For Women and Girls Subject to Violence

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Development of this tool would not have been possible without:

The courage of the many women who have experienced violence and have spoken out about their experiences and the activists, especially from women's organizations across the globe, who have advocated for appropriate service provision and support for women who have experienced violence.

The efforts by Governments who are taking actions towards ending violence against women and girls ('VAWG') through legislative reforms, policy initiatives and implementing prevention and response programmes.

The Government of Australia, one of the principal donors for the UN Joint Programme on Essential Services for Women and Girls Subject to Violence.

The ongoing commitment of the UN system, to develop programmes and actions responding to VAWG. The UN agencies engaged in supporting the development of this tool have shared their time and knowledge to ensure that we continue to improve the provision of quality, essential services for women and girls who have experienced violence. The following agency representatives are thanked for their commitment and input: Kalliope Mingeirou, Caroline Meenagh, Charlotte Hemmestad Ludt, Lea Biason, Beatrice Duncan, Sadiq Syed, Melissa Alvarado, A.H. Monjurul Kabir, Bridget Hancock, and Alejandro Sanchez (UN Women); Shruti Majumdar (UN Trust Fund to End Violence against Women); Valerie Lebaux, Claudia Baroni and Sven Pfeiffer (UNODC); Sofiene Bacha (UNDP); and Cameron Sigley (UN Department of Peace Operations - Police Division).

The following members of the Advisory Group, who are also sincerely thanked for their technical support: Alessandra Aresu (Humanity & Inclusion); Cheryl Thomas, Melissa Scaia, Laura Wilson and Helen Rubenstein (Global Rights for Women); Jennifer Long (AEquitas); Marai Larasi (End Violence Against Women Coalition); Maureen Curtis and Kimberlina Kavern (Safe Horizon); Eileen Skinnider and Ruth Montgomery (International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy, Vancouver, Canada); Maria Victoria 'Mavic' Cabrera Balleza and Agnieszka Fal-Dutra Santos (Global Network of Women Peacebuilders); Raluca Popa and Rea Abada Chiongson (International Development Law Organization); Alison Eaton (Safeguarding Against Abuse Ltd) Cassandra Altagracia Martha, Shamima Begum and Sarah Louise Neil (International Association of Women Police); and Deborah Friedl (President of the International Association of Women Police).

This Handbook would not have been possible without the significant contributions from Graham Goulden, Gerry Campbell, and Neelam Sarkaria, who are sincerely thanked for their dedication and substantial technical support to both the direction and development of the Handbook.

The Authors: Mirko Fernandez, Lead Consultant and Jane Townsley, Senior Police Adviser and Executive Director of the International Association of Women Police.
