WOMEN'S ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT IN THE INDIAN OCEAN RIM

PROGRESS AND CHALLENGES

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

UN Women gratefully acknowledges the collaboration of the International Center for Research on Women in the production of this report. We appreciate the guidance of the report’s IORA Technical Advisory Group—Catherine Herron of the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Mohni Bali and Kate Ah Nien of the Government of Mauritius Ministry of Gender Equality and Family Welfare, Princess Gugu Khathi of the Government of South Africa Department of Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities, and Narnia Bohler-Muller and Joleen Steyn Kotze of the Human Sciences Research Council of South Africa—and the participation of the IORA Working Group on Women’s Economic Empowerment in the report’s validation workshop in July 2019, as well as the support of Marc Livsey and Kritika Nuckchady of the IORA Secretariat. The report was produced under the overall supervision of Seemin Qayum, with coordination by Leigh Tomppert, and research support from Jocelyn Chu and Michael Stewart-Evans, all of UN Women.

UN Women is grateful to the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade for supporting the “Promoting women’s economic empowerment in the Indian Ocean Rim” project, to which this report contributes.
