

Latin American Model Protocol for the investigation of gender-related killings of women (femicide/feminicide)

ISBN 978-9962-5559-0-2

This publication was developed by the Regional Office for Central America of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) with the support of the Americas and the Caribbean Regional Office of United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women), in the framework of the United Nations Secretary General's Campaign UNiTE to End Violence against Women.

This content can be freely cited and reproduced as long as there is proper attribution to the source and a copy is sent to OHCHR and UN Women.

This publication is available online at: www.oacnudh and www.onumujeres.org

The concepts and commentary included in this publication reflect the point of views of the authors and not necessarily those of OHCHR and UN Women.

Coordinator

Carmen Rosa Villa Quintana, Representative for Central America, OHCHR

Authors

Camilo Bernal Sarmiento, lawyer and criminologist, National University of Colombia and the University of Barcelona, Spain

Miguel Lorente Acosta, forensic doctor, tenured professor of legal medicine at the University of Granada, Spain

Françoise Roth, Regional Gender Advisor, OHCHR

Margarita Zambrano, consultant, UN Women/OHCHR

Editors

Françoise Roth, Regional Gender Advisor, OHCHR

Alejandro Valencia Villa, professor in human rights, humanitarian law and transitional justice, Colombia

Design and layout: Diseños e Impresiones Jeicos, S.A., Panamá

Printing: Diseños e Impresiones Jeicos, S.A., Panamá

Cover Photo: UN Women Mexico/Ina Riaskov

Latin American Model Protocol for the investigation of gender-related killings of women (femicide/feminicide)

Regional Office for Central America

Table of Contents

ABBREVIATIONS	ix
FOREWORD	xi
PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xiii
INTRODUCTION	3
Objectives of the Model Protocol	4
Scope of the Model Protocol	5
Criminal investigation, prosecution and conviction as mechanisms to prevent VAW	5
Guidelines that should be adapted to the characteristics of each country	5
International law as the normative reference and standard for interpretation	5
Public servants working in the administration of justice, as well as other professionals representing the victims or providing expertise in these cases	5
Crimes addressed in the Model Protocol	6
Cases in which the Model Protocol can be applied	6
Complementarity of the Model Protocol with Other Protocols	7
Structure of the Model Protocol	7
CHAPTER I.
DEFINING THE CONCEPTS “FEMICIDE” AND “FEMINICIDE”	13
The Definitions of the Concepts of “Femicide” and “Feminicide”	13
Structural Factors of femicides/feminicides	14
Categories of Femicides: active or direct and passive or indirect	14
Types of femicides	15
CHAPTER II.
THE INTERNATIONAL DUE DILIGENCE STANDARD APPLIED TO CASES OF FEMICIDE	21
International obligations of the state regarding gender-based violence	21
The International due diligence Standard Applied to VAW	22
The duty to prevent	23
The state obligation to modify, transform, and eliminate wrongful gender stereotyping	23
The duty to investigate and punish	25
The duty to guarantee just and effective reparation	26

Applicable international standards for evaluating the adequacy of criminal investigations . . . . .	27
The independence and impartiality of the judiciary . . . . .	27
The ex officio and timely initiation of the investigation . . . . .	27
The quality of the criminal investigation . . . . .	28
The effective collection and safeguarding of evidence . . . . .	29
The effective participation of the victims and their representatives . . . . .	29

CHAPTER III.

THE GENDER ANALYSIS AND THE INTERSECTIONALITY OF DISCRIMINATION IN THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION OF FEMICIDES. . . . .

How to identify a femicide . . . . .	35
Why identify the gender-related motives in the investigation of the killing of women? . . . . .	36
How to identify gender-related motives: gender analysis as a tool . . . . .	38
A framework for interpretation: the feminist ecological model . . . . .	40
The intersectionality of discrimination in the analysis of femicides: attention to economic, cultural, age, and racial differences . . . . .	43
What must be investigated in cases of femicide? Context, scenarios, perpetrators, victims, types of violence, and manifestations of violence before and after the femicide . . . . .	45
Circumstances and specific contexts . . . . .	49
Elements associated with the characteristics of the victims. . . . .	49
Girls or adolescents . . . . .	49
Elderly women . . . . .	50
Women with disabilities . . . . .	50
Indigenous women . . . . .	50
Transsexual or transgender persons. . . . .	51
Migrant women . . . . .	51
Elements associated with certain contexts . . . . .	52
Femicides in armed conflict zones or settings . . . . .	52
Enforced disappearances . . . . .	52

CHAPTER IV.

THE DESIGN OF THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION OF FEMICIDES . . . . .

Notice of the crime and institutional action . . . . .	57
Preliminary steps and urgent actions . . . . .	58
The design of the investigation . . . . .	58
The methodological plan or program for the investigation of femicides . . . . .	58
The factual component. . . . .	60
The legal component . . . . .	63
The evidentiary component. . . . .	64
The lines of inquiry . . . . .	66
The consolidation of the program, the verification of the hypothesis, and procedural actions. . . . .	67

CHAPTER V.
THE SIGNS AND INDICATORS OF A FEMICIDE: MEDICAL-FORENSIC ACTION AND CRIMINAL ANALYSIS	71
The signs and indicators of femicide in the scope of partner and familial relationships	72
The signs and indicators of intimate femicides in the autopsy findings	72
The signs and indicators related to the crime scene	73
The signs and indicators related to the circumstances surrounding an intimate femicide	74
The signs and indicators related to the prior situation of the victim of intimate femicide	74
The signs and indicators associated with the background of the relationship and the possible existence of gender-based violence	74
The signs and indicators associated with the impact and consequences of gender-based violence on the health of the woman	75
The signs and indicators related to the perpetrator of an intimate femicide	76
The background associated with perpetrators of gender-based violence that may go so far as to commit intimate femicide	77
The background of the relationship and the possible existence of gender-based violence	77
The behavior and attitude adopted by the perpetrator of a femicide in relation to the partner or family member after the crime	77
Elements identified as “risk factors” associated with cases of intimate femicides	78
The signs and indicators of sexual femicide	80
The signs and indicators of sexual femicide in the autopsy findings	81
The signs and indicators associated with the crime scene of a sexual femicide	83
The signs and indicators related to the prior situation of the woman victim of sexual femicide	84
The signs and indicators related to the perpetrator of sexual femicide	85
The signs and indicators of femicide within the context of a group structure	88
Elements associated with the since the commission of the femicide and attempts to Destroy the body	89
Integrating the data and information provided by the documentation of the signs and indicators associated with femicide	90
CHAPTER VI.
ELEMENTS FOR BUILDING THE THEORY OF THE CASE	97
CHAPTER VII.
THE RIGHTS OF INDIRECT VICTIMS, FAMILY MEMBERS, AND WITNESSES IN THE INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION OF FEMICIDE	105
The public prosecutor’s office and its role as guarantor of the rights of victims	105
The victim and the administration of criminal justice	106
Guiding principles for working with indirect victims and family members in cases of femicides	108

Free legal counsel and representation .....	108
Respect for human dignity and differences .....	108
Avoiding secondary victimization .....	110
Participation in a broad sense: information, assistance, protection, and reparation .....	111
Information .....	112
Assistance .....	112
Protection .....	113
Reparation .....	114

CHAPTER VIII.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE APPROPRIATION AND APPLICATION OF THE MODEL PROTOCOL .....

To States generally .....	121
To Public Prosecutors' offices, other prosecutorial authorities, and judicial bodies .....	123
To the Media .....	124

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY .....

Books and articles .....	127
Protocols, guides, and manuals consulted .....	132
Human-rights reports of interest .....	134

ANNEXES

Annex 1
Summary Analysis of the Codification of Gender-related Killings of Women in Latin America .....	141
Criminal-policy options for the criminal codification of femicidal conduct .....	141
Creating an autonomous criminal definition for femicide/feminicide .....	141
Including a circumstantial element as an aggravating factor or a sentence enhancement to simple homicide .....	142
Modification of the crime of parricide .....	142
Modification of the crime of infanticide .....	142

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5\_22200

