

A future for the world's children?

Two dozen key numbers

WHO, UNICEF and The Lancet

are fully dedicated to improving child health and well-being, tackling both old and new challenges.

42

experts from around the world:
a WHO-UNICEF-Lancet
Commission.

1 key question
Is there a future for the world's children?

Degraded
environment

Harmful
commercial marketing

2 major new
child health challenges

1 key message

Urgent action is needed to guarantee children's health and well-being.

0 excuses

0 time
to lose

Billions of $

of corporate profits are made at the expense of children and their future from:

1.5 million

students participated in climate strikes in 2000 cities worldwide in March 2019.

01.2019

'Our house is on fire'

Greta Thunberg

7 million

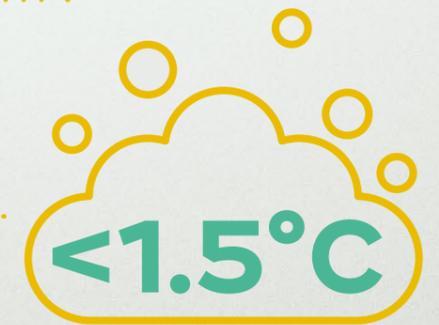

deaths each year (2014) due to air pollution.

Degrading the environment

Temperatures could rise by around 4°C by 2100.

maximum target for warming due to greenhouse gas emissions.

Billions of $

of corporate profits are made at the expense of children and their future from:

Up to 30,000

TV ads seen by some children in 1 year, many for harmful products.

124 million

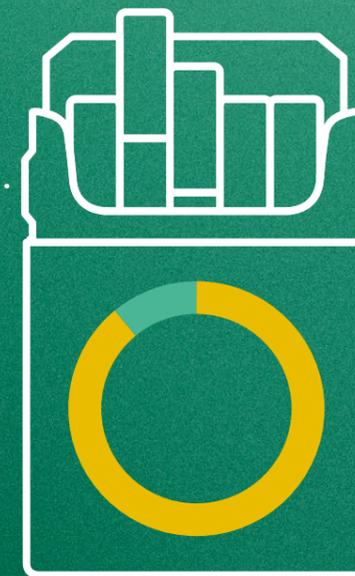

children and adolescents affected by obesity (2016).

Marketing harmful commercial products

Up to 86%

of young children can identify at least one cigarette brand logo.

1-4

alcohol ads seen every day by some children.

Falling short

countries have reported on more than 70% of child-related SDG indicators.

$10-20

benefit for every dollar invested in health in lower income countries.

Age 0 to ∞

health benefits from investing in children extend to adulthood and future generations.

$195

financing gap per person to deliver child health and well-being by 2030.

An investment that pays

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_24252

