Acknowledgements

This profile was developed by the Feasibility of Monitoring Frameworks for Global Health Issues research team through a Health and Labour Sciences Research Grant and by the Japan Agency for Medical Research and Development. The team comprised Tomofumi Sone, Satoko Horii, Takashi Fukuda, Toshiro Kumakawa, Etsuji Okamoto, Kenichi Kobayashi and Kenichiro Taneda from National Institute of Public Health, Japan.

Technical, logistical and editorial support was provided by the World Health Organization Regional Office for the Western Pacific. This team included Fethiye Gulin Gedik and Indrajit Hazarika.

Staff from the Health Policy Bureau of the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare, Japan, in particular, staff from the General Affairs Division, Nursing Division and Medical Professions Division also provided valuable inputs.

We also wish to express our gratitude to Fujitsu Research Institute for collecting the data used in this profile.

Sincere thanks to the organizations and individuals who participated and provided support.
