No. 5456. SURPLUS AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE POLISH PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC. SIGNED AT WASHINGTON, ON 21 JULY 1960

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Polish People's Republic :

Recognizing the desirability of expanding trade in agricultural commodities between their two countries in a manner which would not displace usual marketings of the United States of America of these commodities or unduly disrupt world prices of agricultural commodities ;

Considering that the purchase for zlotys of surplus agricultural commodities produced in the United States of America will assist in achieving such an expansion of trade ;

Desiring to set forth the understandings which will govern the sales, as specified below, of surplus agricultural commodities to Poland pursuant to Title I of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the Act) and the measures which the two Governments will take individually and collectively in furthering the expansion of trade in such commodities ;

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

SALES FOR ZLOTYS

1. Subject to the availability of commodities for programming under the Act and to issuance by the Government of the United States of America and acceptance by the Government of the Polish People's Republic of purchase authorizations, the Government of the United States of America undertakes to finance the sales for zlotys to purchasers authorized by the Government of the Polish People's Republic of the following agricultural commodities determined to be surplus pursuant to the Act, in the amounts indicated :

¹ Came into force on 21 July 1960, upon signature, in accordance with article VI.

Commodity	Market Value (Million)
Wheat	$61.5
Barley	12.5
Corn	2.5
Grain sorghums.	4.5
Cotton	28.0
Soybean/cottonseed oil	7.5
Tobacco	1.5
Nonfat dry milk	1.5
Ocean transportation (50%)	10.5
TOTAL	$130.0

2. Applications for purchase authorizations will be made within 90 calendar days after the effective date of this Agreement. Purchase authorizations will be issued promptly and will include provisions relating to the sale and delivery of commodities, the time and circumstances of deposit of the zlotys accruing from such sale, and other relevant matters.

Article II

USES OF ZLOTYS

1. The two Governments agree that the zlotys accruing to the Government of the United States of America as a consequence of the sales made pursuant to this Agreement will be used by the Government of the United States of America, in accordance with Section 104 of the Act, to help develop new markets for United States agricultural commodities under subsection (a) thereof; to finance the purchase of goods or services for other countries under subsection (d) thereof; to pay United States obligations under subsection (f) thereof; to finance educational exchange activities under subsection (h) thereof; to finance the translation, publication and distribution of books and periodicals under subsection (i) thereof; and for other expenditures by the Government of the United States of America under subsections (k), (l), (m), (n), (q) and (r) thereof.

2. The zlotys accruing under this Agreement shall be expended by the Government of the United States of America, for the purposes stated in paragraph 1 of this Article, in such manner and order of priority as the Government of the United States of America shall determine. It is understood that, with respect to the purchase of goods or services for other countries, the types, quantities and prices will be subject to negotiation between the two Governments.

Article III

DEPOSIT OF ZLOTYS

1. The deposit of zlotys to the account of the Government of the United States of America in payment for the commodities and for ocean transportation costs financed by the Government of the United States of America (except excess costs resulting from the requirement that United States flag vessels be used) shall be made at the highest of any rate of exchange (i.e., the largest number of zlotys per U.S. dollar) established by the Government of the Polish People's Republic or any agency thereof, prevailing on the dates of dollar disbursements by the Government of the United States of America.

2. The two Governments agree that the following procedure shall apply with respect to the zlotys deposited to the account of the Government of the United States of America under this Agreement.

- (a) On the date of the deposit of such zlotys to the account of the United States they shall, at the same rate of exchange at which they were deposited, be converted and transferred to a special dollar denominated account to the credit of the United States Government in the National Bank of Poland.
- (b) Withdrawals in zlotys from such special dollar denominated account by the United States for uses referred to in Article II of this Agreement other than the purchase of goods or services for other countries shall be paid by the National Bank of Poland at the highest of any rate of exchange (i.e., the largest number of zlotys per U.S. dollar) established by the Government of the Polish People's Republic or any agency thereof, prevailing on the date of the withdrawal, provided that if such rate is more appreciated than the rate at which zlotys were deposited under paragraph 1 of this Article, the rate in paragraph 1 shall apply.
- (c) Payment for purchases of goods or services for other countries referred to in Article II of this Agreement shall be made by reducing the balance in the dollar denominated account by an amount equal to the dollar prices of such purchases agreed upon by the two Governments.
- (d) If any unused balance remains in such special dollar denominated account on and after July 1, 1970, the Government of the Polish People's Republic agrees that if the United States Government shall so elect, the National Bank of Poland will sell to the Government of the United States the sum of $4,330,000 in dollar exchange annually, beginning on July 1, 1970, and on each succeeding July 1, such dollar exchange to be paid for by reducing the balance in the dollar denominated account by the same amount.

Article IV

GENERAL UNDERTAKINGS

1. The Government of the Polish People's Republic agrees that it will take all possible measures to prevent the resale or transshipment to other countries or the use for other than domestic purposes (except where such resale, transshipment or use is specifically approved by the Government of the United States of America), of the surplus agricultural commodities purchased pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, and to assure that the purchase of such commodities does not result in increased availability of these or like commodities for export to other countries.

2. The two Governments agree that they will take reasonable precautions to assure that all sales or purchases of surplus agricultural commodities pursuant to this Agreement will not displace usual marketings of the United States of America in these commodities or unduly disrupt world prices of agricultural commodities.

3. The Government of the Polish People's Republic agrees to furnish, upon request of the United States of America, information on the progress of the program particularly with respect to the arrival and condition of commodities and information relating to exports of the same or like commodities.

Article V

CONSULTATION

The two Governments will, upon the request of either of them, consult regarding any matter relating to the application of this Agreement or to the operation of arrangements carried out pursuant to this Agreement.

Article VI

ENTRY INTO FORCE

The Agreement shall enter into force upon signature.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective representatives, duly authorized for the purpose, have signed the present Agreement.
