No. 5708. CONVENTION¹ BETWEEN THE CZECHOSLOVAK SOCIALIST REPUBLIC AND THE HUNGARIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC CONCERNING THE SETTLEMENT OF CERTAIN QUESTIONS OF CITIZENSHIP. SIGNED AT PRAGUE, ON 4 NOVEMBER 1960

The President of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and the Presidential Council of the Hungarian People's Republic, Considering that there are a number of persons whom both Contracting Parties, in accordance with their legislation, regard as their citizens,

Desiring to eliminate any cases of dual citizenship on the basis of free option, by the persons concerned, for the citizenship of one of the two Contracting Parties,

Have decided to conclude this Convention and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries :

The President of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic :

Václav David, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic,

The Presidential Council of the Hungarian People's Republic :

József Marjai, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Hungarian People's Republic in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, who, having exchanged their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows :

Article 1

Persons whom both Contracting Parties, under their laws, regard as their citizens may, in accordance with this Convention, decide which citizenship they intend to retain.

Article 2

(1) Persons to whom this Convention applies, who are resident in the territory of one Contracting Party and who wish to opt for the citizenship of the other Contracting Party shall file in writing a declaration to that effect with the mission of the latter Contracting Party.

¹ Came into force on 19 March 1961, the thirtieth day after the exchange of the instruments of ratification which took place at Budapest on 17 February 1961, in accordance with article 10.
