EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to conversations between our two Governments regarding claims of Japanese nationals formerly resident in the Bonin Islands, Rosario Island, the Volcano Islands, Marcus Island and Parece Vela arising from measures taken by the United States of America in connection with the exercise of its rights under Article 3 of the Treaty of Peace with Japan.²

I now desire to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United States of America hereby tenders to the Government of Japan the sum of six million dollars in full satisfaction and settlement of all claims of Japan and of its nationals concerned, whether natural or juridical persons, against the Government of the United States of America or any agency thereof, arising from the measures taken by the United States of America, which have resulted in the inability of the Japanese nationals concerned to enjoy the use, benefit or exercise of property rights or interests tangible or intangible, in the said islands for the period beginning April 28, 1952, the effective date of the Treaty of Peace with Japan and continuing until such time as the above measures are discontinued by the United States of America. This offer is made with the understanding that the Government of Japan will distribute the tendered sum to the Japanese nationals concerned in accordance with methods of distribution to be adopted by the Government of Japan, and with the further understanding that the payment of the sum mentioned above does in no way constitute the transfer to the United States Government or any agency thereof of property
