No. 6593. MOST-FAVOURED-NATION TRADE AGREEMENT[1] BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND OF SPAIN. SIGNED AT CAPETOWN, ON 8 FEBRUARY 1963

The Government of the Republic of South Africa and the Government of Spain, wishing to facilitate closer economic relations and to promote the development of trade between the two countries on a non-discriminatory basis, and being desirous of contributing to these objectives by entering into reciprocal and mutually advantageous arrangements directed to the substantial reduction of tariffs and other barriers to trade, have agreed as follows :

Article I

GENERAL MOST-FAVOURED-NATION TREATMENT

Articles grown, produced or manufactured in the territories of either contracting Government shall, when imported into the territories of the other, either direct or via any other country, enjoy, in respect of customs duties and other taxes and charges levied on imported goods, and in all matters pertaining to the administration of such customs duties, taxes and charges, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to like articles grown, produced or manufactured in any other country, provided that such articles imported from Spain into South Africa shall not be entitled to any privileges relating to the matters described above which are being or may hereafter be accorded by South Africa to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Dependent Territories of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada, Ceylon, New Zealand, Ireland and the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

Article II

TREATMENT ON INTERNAL TAXATION AND REGULATION

1. Articles grown, produced or manufactured in the territories of either contracting Government shall, after importation into the territories of the other, either direct or via any other country, enjoy, in respect of all taxes, fees and other charges levied by or on behalf of the state or local authority or any other body or corporation in connection with the internal distribution, sale, consumption or processing of such products, and in all matters relating to the administration of
