No. 6840. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF ITALY REGARDING THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL AND TOURISM. SIGNED AT GENEVA, ON 26 JULY 1963

Whereas, upon the invitation of the Government of Italy (hereinafter referred to as the Government), the United Nations Conference on International Travel and Tourism (hereinafter referred to as the Conference) will be held in Rome from 21 August to 5 September 1963, therefore the Government and the United Nations agree as follows :

I. Premises, equipment, utilities and stationery supplies

1. The Government shall make available at its expense such conference rooms and offices in the Palazzo dei Congressi (EUR) as will be necessary for the Conference. These facilities shall include one large assembly hall for plenary meetings, two large conference rooms for meetings of the two large committees of the Conference, two smaller conference rooms for meetings of the sub-committees and working parties, two small committee rooms for private meetings of delegations, a delegates' lounge, suitable working areas and all necessary equipment for documents reproduction and documents distribution, a room for a reading and reference centre, and suitable office accommodation (a minimum of 20 offices) for the officers and staff of the Conference.

2. The Government shall at its expense furnish, equip and maintain in good repair all the aforementioned rooms and offices in a manner adequate to the effective conduct of the Conference. The large assembly hall and the two large conference rooms shall be equipped for simultaneous interpretation in English, French, Spanish and Russian, and also have facilities for sound recording. If the Government desires that there also be simultaneous interpretation in Italian during the Conference, it shall at its expense provide the necessary number of interpreters for interpretation from and into English, French, Spanish and Russian, and pay for any extra expenses relating to equipment, facilities and services which may be involved. The Government shall also provide suitable facilities for the Press, radio and film operation.

3. The Government shall provide, if possible within the Conference area, bank, post office, telephone and telegraph, telex and cable facilities, cafeteria and bar.
4. Any space along the wall of the delegates' lounge which the Government provides for the display of publicity material and advertising shall be allocated on a non-discriminatory basis as between the participants in the Conference.
5. The Government shall pay for all the necessary utility services, including telephone communications of the Secretariat of the Conference within Rome and communications by cable or telex between the Secretariat of the Conference and the European Office of the United Nations in Geneva.
6. The Government shall at its expense make arrangements for the provision of one photo-copying machine and three Gestetner duplicating machines. The latter machines shall be suitable for the use of stencils and paper provided by the United Nations, samples of which will be provided for the liaison officer appointed by the Government under Article IV, section 1. The Government shall be responsible for the provision of ink and incidental supplies, and for the maintenance of the machines, including night-time service as required.
7. The Government shall furnish, or pay the local hire costs for twenty typewriters of the kind needed for the Conference, according to specifications to be given to the liaison officer appointed by the Government.
8. Any damage to the premises in the Conference area, or injury to persons using such premises, or damage to furniture or equipment provided by the Government, shall be made good at the expense of the Government, without prejudice to the Government's right of recourse as long as such right is not contrary to the present agreement.
9. The United Nations shall provide at its expense all stationery supplies as well as stencils and paper required for documents reproduction and the adequate functioning of the Conference, and the Government shall pay the transport and insurance charges for their shipment from Geneva to Rome and return.

II. Transportation

The Government shall provide at its expense two chauffeur-driven cars and two station-wagons for use by the officers and staff of the Conference. The Government shall also provide at its expense, for the use of all persons attending the Conference, adequate shuttle transportation by bus between the Palazzo dei Congressi and the Metropolitan underground station "Esposizione" for one hour before and after the opening and closing of all meetings. Furthermore,
