No. 6944. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF TANGANYIKA FOR THE PROVISION OF OPERATIONAL, EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL. SIGNED AT DAR ES SALAAM, ON 1 JUNE 1962

The United Nations and the Government of Tanganyika (hereinafter called "the Government"), desiring to join in furthering the development of the administrative services of Tanganyika, have entered into this Agreement in a spirit of friendly cooperation.

Article I

SCOPE OF THIS AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement embodies the conditions under which the United Nations shall provide the Government with the services of administrative officers or specialists (hereinafter referred to as "officers"). It also embodies the basic conditions which govern the relationship between the Government and the officers. The Government and the officers may enter into agreements between themselves or adopt such arrangements as may be appropriate concerning their mutual relationship. However, any such agreement or arrangement shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and shall be communicated to the United Nations.

2. The relationship between the United Nations and the officers shall be defined in contracts which the United Nations may enter into with such officers. A copy of the contract which the United Nations intends to use for this purpose is herewith transmitted for the Government's information as annex I² of this Agreement. The United Nations undertakes to furnish the Government with copies of individual contracts actually concluded between the United Nations and the officers within one month after such contracts are concluded.

ment, or, if so agreed by the United Nations and the Government, in other public agencies or public corporations or public bodies, or in national agencies or bodies other than those of a public character.

2. In the performance of the duties assigned to them by the Government, the officers shall be solely responsible to, and under the exclusive direction of, the Government; they shall not report to nor take instructions from the United Nations or any other person or body external to the Government except with the approval of the Government. In each case the Government shall designate the authority to which the officer will be immediately responsible.

3. The Parties hereto recognize that a special international status attaches to the officers made available to the Government under this Agreement, and that the assistance provided the Government hereunder is in furtherance of the purposes of the United Nations. Accordingly, the officers shall not be required to perform any function incompatible with such special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

4. In implementation of the preceding paragraph, but without restricting its generality or the generality of the last sentence of paragraph 1 of Article I, any agreements entered into by the Government with the officers shall embody a specific provision to the effect that the officer shall not perform any functions incompatible with his special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

Article III

OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations undertakes to provide, in response to the Government's requests, experienced officers to perform the functions described in Article II above.

2. The United Nations undertakes to provide such officers in accordance with any applicable resolutions and decisions of its competent organs, and subject to the availability of the necessary funds.

3. The United Nations undertakes, within the financial resources available to it, to provide administrative facilities necessary to the successful implementation of this Agreement, specifically including the payment of stipends and allowances to supplement, as appropriate, the salaries paid the officers by the Government under Article IV, paragraph 1, of this Agreement, and upon request, effecting payments in currencies unavailable to the Government, and making arrangements for travel and transportation outside Tanganyika when the officer, his family or belongings are moved under the terms of his contract.

4. The United Nations undertakes to provide the officer with such subsidiary benefits as it may deem appropriate, including compensation in the event of death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the Government. Such subsidiary benefits shall be specified in contracts to be entered into between the United Nations and the officers.

5. The United Nations undertakes to extend its good offices in a spirit of friendly cooperation towards the making of any necessary amendment to the conditions of service of the officer, including the cessation of such service if and when it becomes necessary.

Article IV

OBLIGATIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT

1. The Government shall contribute to the cost of implementing this Agreement by paying the officer the salary and related emoluments which would be payable to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated.

2. The Government shall provide the officer with such services and facilities, including local transportation, and medical and hospital facilities, as are normally made available to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated.

3. The Government shall use its best endeavours to locate suitable housing and make it available to the officer.

4. The Government shall grant the officer the annual and sick leave available to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated. The Government shall grant to the officer such further annual leave, not exceeding total leave at the rate of thirty working days per annum, as may be required to permit him to enjoy such home leave as he may be entitled to under the terms of his contract with the United Nations.

5. The Government recognises that the officers shall :
