No. 6951. EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND JAPAN RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES. TOKYO, 14 JUNE 1963

The American Ambassador to the Japanese Minister for Foreign Affairs

I

Tokyo, June 14, 1963

No. 1151

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to the Agreement on Agricultural Commodities between the United States of America and Japan signed on May 31, 1955, as amended,² and the Agreement on Agricultural Commodities between the United States of America and Japan signed on February 10, 1956,³ and to the Exchanges of Notes and Agreed Minutes accompanying these agreements.

These agreements specified that a portion of the yen obtained from the sale of United States agricultural commodities under provisions of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954 would be set aside for use by the Government of the United States of America. Yen deposits which were set aside "to procure military equipment, material, facilities and services for the common defense" in accordance with Article V, paragraph 1, subparagraph (1) of the 1955 Agreement and Article IV, paragraph 1, sub-paragraph (1) of the 1956 Agreement have amounted to 8,777,490,191.18 yen.

In the accompanying Exchanges of Notes to these agreements, it was stated that the intention of the Government of the United States of America was to use such yen deposits "mainly for the construction of United States dependent housing in Japan."

Of this amount, there remain 590,583,055.18 yen which the Government of the United States of America does not intend to spend for the above quoted purposes.

I have been instructed by my Government to inform you that, in accordance with the provisions of Article V of the 1955 Agreement, and Article IV of the 1956 Agreement, it proposes to utilize the above stated remaining yen deposits for the payment of United States obligations in Japan.

¹ Came into force on 14 June 1963 by the exchange of the said notes.
