No. 7070. TRADE AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN NEW ZEALAND AND THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS. SIGNED AT WELLINGTON, ON 1 AUGUST 1963

The Government of New Zealand and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics,

Desiring to develop trade between the two countries to their mutual benefit,

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

1. The Contracting Parties shall accord each other unconditional most-favoured-nation treatment in all matters with respect to customs duties and charges of any kind imposed on or in connection with importation or exportation of products and with respect to the method of levying such duties and charges, with respect to all rules and formalities connected with importation or exportation, and with respect to all internal taxes or other internal charges of any kind.

2. Accordingly, products of one of the Contracting Parties imported into the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be subject, in regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, to any other or higher duties, taxes or charges, or to any rules or formalities more burdensome, than those to which the like products of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

3. Similarly, products exported from the territory of one of the Contracting Parties and consigned to the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be subject, in regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, to any other or higher duties, taxes or charges, or to any rules or formalities more burdensome, than those to which the like products when consigned to the territory of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

4. Any advantage, favour, privilege or immunity which has been or may hereafter be granted by either Contracting Party in regard to the matters referred
