Article 3

The operation of services between Tunisian territory and Luxembourg territory, in either direction, on the routes specified in schedules I and II of the annex to this Agreement constitutes a right of the two countries exercised in accordance with the following conditions :

(a) The capacity shall be divided equally between the Tunisian and Luxembourg airlines subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) below ;

(b) The total capacity provided on each route shall be adapted to the reasonably foreseeable requirements.

In order to meet unforeseen or temporary traffic requirements on these routes, the designated airlines shall decide among themselves upon appropriate measures to deal with such temporary increase in traffic. They shall report the same immediately to the aeronautical authorities of their respective countries, which may consult together if they see fit ;

(c) If either Contracting Party does not wish to use, on one or more routes, part or all of the transport capacity allocated to it, it shall come to an agreement with the other Party with a view to transferring to the latter, for a specified period, all or part of the transport capacity available to it to the extent specified.

The Contracting Party which transfers all or part of its rights may recover them at the end of the said period.

Article 4

(1) Rates for the agreed services shall be fixed at reasonable levels, regard being paid to all relevant factors, including economy of operation, reasonable profit and differences in the characteristics of the service, as well as the rates charged by other airlines regularly operating all or part of the specified route.

(2) The rates to be charged by each of the airlines designated under this Agreement in respect of traffic on any of the specified air routes between the territories of the two Contracting Parties, or between the territories of third countries and the territory of one of the Contracting Parties, shall be fixed either :

(a) In accordance with such rate resolutions as may have been adopted by an airlines organization of which the designated airlines are members, and accepted for that purpose by the two Contracting Parties, or

(b) By agreement between the designated airlines where these are not members of the same airlines organization or where no resolutions as referred to in paragraph (2) (a) above exist.

(3) The rates so fixed shall be submitted for approval to the aeronautical authorities of the two Contracting Parties and shall come into effect forty-five days after notice thereof is received by the said aeronautical authorities, unless either Contracting Party signifies its disapproval.

Article 5

(a) Fuel and spare parts introduced into or taken on board in the territory of one Contracting Party by the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party and intended solely for use by the aircraft of that airline or those airlines shall enjoy the benefits of temporary entry regulations.

(b) Aircraft employed by the designated airline of one Contracting Party on the agreed services and fuel, lubricating oils, spare parts, regular equipment and aircraft stores retained on board such aircraft shall be exempt in the territory of the other Contracting Party from customs duties and other similar duties and charges, even though such supplies be used or consumed on flights over that territory.

(c) Each Contracting Party agrees that the charges imposed or authorized for the use of its airports and other facilities by the airlines of the other Contracting Party shall not be higher than would be paid for the use of the said airports and facilities by its national aircraft engaged in similar international services.

Article 6

Certificates of airworthiness, certificates of competency and licences issued or rendered valid by one Contracting Party shall be recognized by the other Contracting Party for the purpose of operating the routes described in the annex. Each Contracting Party reserves the right, however, to refuse to recognize as valid for the purpose of flights over its own territory certificates of competency and licences issued to its own nationals by a third State.
