No. 7402. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA FOR THE PROVISION OF OPERATIONAL, EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL. SIGNED AT PANAMA CITY, ON 24 JUNE 1959

The United Nations and the Government of the Republic of Panama, in accordance with the Revised Agreement concerning Technical Assistance between the Organization and the Government signed at Panama City on 27 April 1957,² which was approved by the National Assembly of Panama by Act of the Republic No. 38 of 25 October 1958, and desiring to join in furthering the development of the administrative services of Panama, have entered into this Agreement in a spirit of friendly co-operation.

Article I

SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement embodies the conditions under which the United Nations shall provide the Government with the services of administrative officers or specialists (hereinafter referred to as "officers"). It also embodies the basic conditions which govern the relationship between the Government and the officers. The Government and the officers may enter into agreements between themselves or adopt such arrangements as may be appropriate concerning their mutual relationship. Nevertheless, any such agreement, or arrangement shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and shall be communicated to the United Nations.
2. The relationship between the United Nations and the officers shall be defined in contracts which the United Nations may enter into with such officers. A copy of the contract which the United Nations intends to use for this purpose is herewith transmitted for the Government's information as annex I³ of this Agreement. The United Nations undertakes to furnish the Government with copies of individual contracts actually concluded between the United Nations and the officers, within one month after such contracts are concluded.

Article II

FUNCTIONS OF THE OFFICERS

1. The officers to be provided under this Agreement shall be available to perform operational, executive or managerial functions, including training, for the Government, or if so agreed by the United Nations and the Government, in other public agencies or public corporations or public bodies, or in national agencies or bodies other than those of a public character.

2. In the performance of the duties assigned to them by the Government, the officers shall be solely responsible to, and under the exclusive direction of, the Government ; they shall not report to or take instructions from the United Nations or any other person or body external to the Government except with the approval of the Government. In each case the Government shall designate the authority to which the officer will be immediately responsible.

3. The Parties hereto recognize that a special international status attaches to the officers made available to the Government under this Agreement, and that the assistance furnished to the Government hereunder is in furtherance of the purposes of the United Nations. Accordingly, the officers shall not be required to perform any function incompatible with such special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

4. In implementation of the preceding paragraph, but without restricting its generality or the generality of the last sentence of article I, paragraph 1, any agreements entered into by the Government with the officers shall embody a specific provision to the effect that the officer shall not perform any functions incompatible with his special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

Article III

OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations undertakes to provide, in response to the Government's requests, experienced officers to perform the functions described in article II above.

2. The United Nations undertakes to provide such officers in accordance with any applicable resolutions and decisions of its competent organs, and subject to the availability of the necessary funds.

3. The United Nations undertakes, within the financial resources available to it, to provide administrative facilities necessary to the successful implementation of this Agreement, specifically including the payment of stipends and allowances to supplement, as appropriate, the salaries paid to the officers by the Government under article IV, paragraph 1, of this Agreement, and, upon request, to effect payments in
