The Government of the Kingdom of Belgium and

The Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands,

Desiring to settle the various mutual claims originating from the Second World War and the German occupation,

Have agreed on the following provisions :

Article I

The Belgian State shall pay to the Netherlands State a lump sum of B.fr. 1,200,000 (one million two hundred thousand Belgian francs) as reimbursement for the compensation which the Netherlands State has paid to persons resident in Belgium for damage caused in Belgium by Netherlands troops or military personnel under British command.

Article II

The Belgian State shall pay to the Netherlands State a lump sum of B.fr. 1,800,000 (one million eight hundred thousand Belgian francs) for damage caused in Belgium by troops or military personnel under allied command to Netherlands nationals not resident in Belgium.

In accepting this lump-sum settlement, the Netherlands State undertakes to pay out of the said sum compensation for the damage referred to in the preceding paragraph.

The payment referred to above shall be made by the Belgian State on the basis of reciprocity, the Netherlands State, for its part, undertaking to bear the cost of compensation for the damage caused in the Netherlands by troops or military personnel under allied command to Belgian nationals not resident in the Netherlands, almost the entire amount of such compensation having already been paid by the Netherlands State.
