AMERICAN EMBASSY
TAIPEI, TAIWAN

December 10, 1964

Dear Mr. Minister :

Combined US-Chinese military exercises to be held in Taiwan during 1965 are now being scheduled by the Taiwan Defense Command and the Ministry of National Defense. In connection with these exercises, it is requested that the Government of the Republic of China extend to the participating United States forces, their members, naval vessels, aircraft, and equipment, to the extent applicable, the same rights, privileges, assistance, immunities, and exemptions as are extended to the Military Assistance Advisory Group, or its members, Republic of China, under the Military Assistance Agreement between the United States and China, concluded by exchange of notes of January 30, 1951 and February 9, 1951,<sup>2</sup> as amended by the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, concluded by exchange of notes of October 23, 1952 and November 1, 1952.<sup>3</sup>

In amplification of the above it is also requested that it be understood between our two Governments that each Government agrees to waive all claims against the other Government for damages to any property owned by it and used by its land, sea or air armed forces if such damage :

- (a) was caused by a member or an employee of the armed forces of the other Government in the execution of his official duties; or
- (b) arose from the use of any vehicle, vessel or aircraft owned by the other Government and used by its armed forces, provided either that the vehicle,
