No. 7738. EXCHANGE OF LETTERS CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND MEXICO REGARDING THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SESSION OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW CONCERNING FRIENDLY RELATIONS AND CO-OPERATION AMONG STATES, TO BE HELD IN MEXICO CITY FROM 27 AUGUST TO 1 OCTOBER 1964. NEW YORK, 16 AND 17 JULY 1964

I

LE 114/2

16 July 1964

Sir,

I am directed by the Secretary-General to refer to resolution 1966 (XVIII),² adopted by the General Assembly on 16 December 1963, by which the General Assembly established the Special Committee on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States. I further have the honour to refer to your letter of 23 April 1964 transmitting an invitation of the Government of Mexico to the Special Committee to hold its session in the Mexican capital.

As the Representatives of States Members of the Special Committee at their informal meeting on 27 April agreed to accept that invitation, I have the honour to propose the following arrangements for the session of the Special Committee on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States to be held in Mexico City from 27 August to 1 October 1964.

I. PREMISES, EQUIPMENT, UTILITIES AND SUPPLIES

1. The Government shall make available at its expense such conference rooms and offices in Mexico City as will be necessary for the session of the Committee. These facilities shall include a main conference chamber capable of seating 27 delegates (with two or three advisers behind each) and a bureau of three at the conference table; provision shall be made for the seating of fifteen observers from Governments and Specialized Agencies. Press and public shall be accommodated in the chamber. In addition to the main conference chamber the facilities shall include another conference room for working groups or drafting committees capable of seating fifteen delegates with one adviser each. The main conference chamber and the small conference room shall both be equipped for simultaneous interpretation into four languages, that is, one interpreter's booth each, for English, French, Russian and Spanish, and a booth for the sound technician. There shall be one microphone for every two persons or positions at the conference table. Sound recording equipment will be needed in a room adjacent to this chamber.

2. A delegates' lounge and suitable working areas for document reproduction and distribution shall also be provided.

3. Approximately 20 suitably equipped offices shall be provided for staff and officials of the Conference. Also, a suitably furnished room shall be provided if possible for the use of the interpreters. A large area shall be provided to accommodate the precis-writers and revisers and a number of typists.

4. The Government shall provide if possible within the conference area a Post Office, a Cable Office, a Clinic or First Aid Station, Banking facilities, dining facilities for delegations and staff and an information booth, preferably located near the entrance to the conference area.

5. The Government shall at its expense furnish, equip and maintain in good repair all the aforementioned rooms and offices.

6. The Government shall furnish typewriters required for the typists assigned to the conference staff. These will include 27 electric machines with specially made Headquarters keyboards of the following types : 8 English, 8 French, 8 Spanish and 3 Russian. There shall be additional manual typewriters required for secretaries assigned to Officers of the Conference Substantive and Administrative Staff.

7. Two cars and two station wagons shall be made available to the officers and staff of the Committee. The Government shall also make available at its expense such additional transportation as may be necessary to transport United Nations staff from the airport servicing Mexico City to their hotels and from their hotels to the airport.

8. The Government shall pay for all necessary utility services including telephone communications of the Secretariat within Mexico City and communications by Telex between the Secretariat of the Committee and the Headquarters of the United Nations in New York.

9. Any damage to the premises in the conference area or injury to persons using such premises, or damage to furniture or equipment provided by the Government, or any damage to person or property caused or suffered in using transportation referred to in paragraph 7 of this Article shall be made good at the expense of the Government, without prejudice to the Government's right of recourse as long as such right is not contrary to the present Agreement.

10. The United Nations shall provide at its expense all stationery supplies required for the adequate functioning of the session.

II. POLICE PROTECTION

The Government shall furnish at its expense such police protection as may be required to ensure the efficient functioning of the Conference without interference of any kind. While such police services shall be under the direct supervision and control of a senior officer provided by the Government, this officer shall work in close co-operation with the responsible United Nations official so as to ensure a proper atmosphere of security and tranquillity.

III. LOCAL PERSONNEL FOR THE SESSION

1. The Government shall engage and provide at its expense :

- a) Security Officers
- b) Maintenance Staff
- c) Ushers
- d) Messengers
- e) Telephone Operators
- f) Information Clerks
- g) Reproduction and Distribution Staff to be supervised by the United Nations Personnel
- h) Telecommunications Officers
- i) Typists
- j) Drivers of cars referred to in Article I paragraph 8 above

2. The Government agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the United Nations from any and all actions, causes of actions, claims or other demands arising out of employment for the United Nations of the personnel referred to in this article.

IV. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENT

1. The Government, in pursuance of resolution 1202 (XII)¹ of the General Assembly, shall assume responsibility for the additional expenditure to the United Nations resulting from the convening of the Committee in Mexico City rather than at United Nations Headquarters in New York. In order to permit preparations to be made sufficiently in advance, the Government shall advance to the United Nations the sum of US $76,000. This sum will be used in the manner set out in the attached estimate, without prejudice to any adjustments which may be made if locally recruited personnel are provided by the Government in place of some of the personnel mentioned in the estimate.

2. Expenditures related to the session shall be defrayed from this amount and the United Nations shall, on conclusion of the session, submit to the Government a statement of account of all expenses incurred. The United Nations shall make a refund to the Government in case the actual expenses are less than US $76,000 advanced ; in the event the expenses are in excess of US $76,000 the Government shall make a further payment to cover this excess.

V. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

1. The Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations² which has been acceded to by Mexico shall be applicable in accordance with such accession to the session of the Committee. The Conference area, comprising conference rooms and offices and ancillary facilities, shall, for the duration of their occupancy by the United
