No. 7780. EXCHANGE OF LETTERS CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND BELGIUM RELATING TO THE SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS FILED AGAINST THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE CONGO BY BELGIAN NATIONALS. NEW YORK, 20 FEBRUARY 1965

I

UNITED NATIONS
NEW YORK

20 February 1965

Sir,

A number of Belgian nationals have lodged with the United Nations claims for damage to persons and property arising from the operations of the United Nations Force in the Congo, particularly those which took place in Katanga. The claims in question have been examined by United Nations officials assigned to assemble all the information necessary for establishing the relevant facts submitted by the claimants or their beneficiaries and any other available information.

The United Nations has agreed that the claims of Belgian nationals who may have suffered damage as a result of harmful acts committed by ONUC personnel, and not arising from military necessity, should be dealt with in an equitable manner.

It has stated that it would not evade responsibility where it was established that United Nations agents had in fact caused unjustifiable damage to innocent parties.

It is pointed out that, under these principles, the United Nations does not assume liability for damage to persons or property which resulted solely from military operations or which, although caused by third parties, has given rise to claims against the United Nations; such cases are therefore excluded from the proposed compensation.

Consultations have taken place with the Belgian Government. The examination of the claims having now been completed, the Secretary-General shall, without prejudice to the privileges and immunities enjoyed by the United Nations,

¹ Came into force on 17 May 1965, the date on which the Belgian Government notified the Secretary-General of the United Nations that the Belgian Legislative Chambers assented to the Agreement, in accordance with the provisions of the latter.
