No. 7785. TREATY¹ OF FRIENDSHIP AND CULTURAL RELATIONS BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES AND THE REPUBLIC OF ARGENTINA. SIGNED AT BUENOS AIRES, ON 12 FEBRUARY 1960

The Government of the Republic of the Philippines and the Government of the Republic of Argentina, animated by a common desire to strengthen the ties of fraternal friendship and affection existing between their two peoples, recognizing the inestimable value of the cultural heritage and spiritual values which they share, and resolved to preserve and promote the same by closer and more harmonious collaboration, have decided to conclude a Treaty of Friendship and Cultural Relations and to that end have appointed as their respective plenipotentiaries :

The President of the Philippines : His Excellency Pedro Gil, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Philippines; and who, after communicating to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles :

The President of the Republic of Argentina : His Excellency Dr. Diogenes Taboada, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Worship of the Republic of Argentina;

Article I

There shall be perpetual peace and everlasting amity between the Republic of the Philippines and the Republic of Argentina and their peoples.

Article II

The High Contracting Parties shall maintain close friendly relations between them and endeavor to extend to each other diplomatic collaboration in the international field within the framework of the Charter of the United Nations.

In case of any dispute or controversy of any nature whatsoever arising between the High Contracting Parties, they shall seek a solution by negotiation, enquiry, mediation, conciliation, arbitration, judicial settlement or other peaceful means of their own choice. This undertaking shall not apply to disputes relating to matters considered respectively by the Republic of the Philippines and the Republic of Argentina as being essentially of their national competence.

¹ Came into force on 25 March 1965, the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification at Manila, in accordance with article XIV.
