No. 7815. TRADE AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE KINGDOM OF GREECE AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF CAMEROON. SIGNED AT ATHENS, ON 29 OCTOBER 1962

The Government of the Federal Republic of Cameroon and the Government of the Kingdom of Greece, desiring to develop and consolidate trade relations between the two countries on the basis of equality and mutual advantage, have agreed as follows :

Article 1

With a view to promoting and facilitating trade between the Federal Republic of Cameroon and the Kingdom of Greece, the two Contracting Parties shall grant each other most-favoured-nation treatment in all matters relating to trade between the two countries : the most-favoured-nation treatment shall apply, in particular, to customs duties and other charges and taxes relating to the export and import of goods, the arrangements for the collection of the aforementioned duties, charges and taxes, and the regulations and formalities for the clearance of goods.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to :

- (a) Goods coming from the Kingdom of Greece but originating in the territories of third States which do not enjoy most-favoured-nation treatment in the Federal Republic of Cameroon, or goods coming from the Federal Republic of Cameroon but originating in the territories of third States which do not enjoy most-favoured-nation treatment in Greece;
- (b) The advantages which either Contracting Party grants or shall grant in the future to neighbouring countries to facilitate frontier traffic;
- (c) The advantages resulting from a customs union which either Contracting Party has entered into or may enter into in the future.

Article 2

The export of goods from the Kingdom of Greece to the Federal Republic of Cameroon and from the Federal Republic of Cameroon to the Kingdom of Greece shall be carried out in conformity with schedules A and B annexed to this Agreement.

¹ Came into force on 29 October 1962, upon signature, in accordance with article 11.

Changes relating to the goods already specified in schedules A and B or the listing of other goods may be effected after agreement between the Contracting Parties.

The competent authorities and departments of the two Contracting Parties shall without hindrance issue export and import licences for the goods specified in schedules A and B.

Article 3

The provisions of article 2 shall not affect the right of foreign trade organizations or of individuals or corporations in the Federal Republic of Cameroon and in Greece to conclude with each other, subject to compliance with the import, export and exchange control regulations in force in the two countries, commercial transactions concerning the import and export of goods not specified in the schedules referred to in article 2.

The competent authorities of each Contracting Party shall consider in a spirit of complete co-operation applications from the other Contracting Party relating to the import and export of goods involved in the transactions provided for in this article.

Article 4

The import and export of goods referred to in articles 2 and 3 shall be carried out in conformity with the laws and regulations relating to imports, exports and exchange controls in force in Greece and in the Federal Republic of Cameroon on the basis of contracts concluded between Greek foreign trade authorities and departments, on the one hand, and individuals and corporations in the Federal Republic of Cameroon, on the other hand.

Article 5

The merchant ships of each country and their cargoes shall enjoy most-favoured-nation treatment in all matters concerning rights and privileges relating to arrival in and departure from the ports of the other Party and the conditions governing the stay of ships in those ports, subject to the provisions of article 1, sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (c).

Article 6

The two Contracting Parties shall take all measures to ensure that the prices of goods delivered under this Agreement are established on the basis of world prices, that is to say of the prices prevailing on the principal markets for similar products.
