AMERICAN EMBASSY

No. 37

Bangui, December 31, 1964

Excellency,

I have the honor to refer to conversations which have recently taken place between representatives of our two Governments relating to investments in the Central African Republic which further the development of the economic resources and productive capacities of the Central African Republic and to guaranties of such investments by the Government of the United States of America. I also have the honor to confirm the following understandings reached as a result of those conversations:

1. The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Central African Republic shall, upon the request of either Government, consult concerning investments in the Central African Republic which the Government of the United States of America may guaranty.

2. The Government of the United States of America shall not guaranty an investment in the Central African Republic unless the Government of the Central African Republic approves the activity to which the investment relates and recognizes that the Government of the United States of America may guaranty such investment.

3. If an investor transfers to the Government of the United States of America pursuant to an investment guaranty, (a) lawful currency, including credits thereof, of the Central African Republic, (b) any claims or rights which the investor has or
