No. 7891. EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND BOLIVIA RELATING TO RECIPROCAL AUTHORIZATIONS CONCERNING AMATEUR RADIO OPERATORS. LA PAZ, 16 MARCH 1965

I

The American Ambassador to the Bolivian Minister of Foreign Affairs

No. 85

La Paz, March 16, 1965

Excellency,

I have the honor to express to Your Excellency that the Government of the United States of America is desirous of making an agreement with the Government of Bolivia to grant reciprocal authorizations, so that amateur radio operators in each of our countries may operate their radio stations in the other country, in accordance with the provisions of Article 41 of the International Radio Regulations, Geneva, 1959,² under the following conditions :

1. An amateur radio operator who is licensed by his Government and who operates an amateur radio station with the permission of his Government will be permitted by the other Government, on a reciprocal basis and subject to the conditions indicated below, to operate such a station on the territory of such other Government.

2. The amateur radio operator who is licensed by his Government, before he will be permitted to operate his station as provided in paragraph 1, shall obtain from the appropriate administrative agency of the other Government an authorization for that purpose.

3. The appropriate administrative agency of each Government may issue such an authorization, as prescribed in paragraph 2 ; under these conditions and terms, the Government which issued the authorization reserves to itself the right of cancellation of this permission at any time in accordance with its own interests.

This note and the reply to it from Your Excellency, of the same date and on the same subject, will constitute an agreement between our two Governments which will enter into effect 30 days after signature. Similarly, termination of this agreement will become effective 30 days from the date

¹ Came into force on 15 April 1965, thirty days after the signature of the said notes, in accordance with the provisions thereof.
