Accordingly, all goods the produce or manufacture of either country, on importation into the territory of the other country, shall not be subject, in regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, to any other or higher duties, taxes or charges, or to any rules or formalities less favourable, than those to which the like goods of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

3. Similarly, all goods the produce or manufacture of either country, on exportation from the territory of that country and consigned to the territory of the other country, shall not be subject, in regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, to any other or higher duties, taxes or charges, or to any rules or formalities less favourable, than those to which the like goods when consigned to the territory of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

4. Any advantage, favour, privilege or immunity which has been or may hereafter be granted by the Government of either country in regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article to any product originating in or consigned to the territory of any third country shall be accorded immediately and unconditionally to the like product originating in or consigned to the territory of the other country.
