No. 8066. EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF IRELAND AND THE DANISH GOVERNMENT IN REGARD TO THE MUTUAL ABOLITION OF VISAS. COPENHAGEN, 13 MAY 1947

I

From the Chargé d'Affaires at Stockholm to the Danish Minister for Foreign Affairs

Copenhagen, May 13th, 1947

Excellency,

I have the honour to inform your Excellency, that, with a view to the eventual restoration of freedom of travel between Ireland and Denmark, the Irish Government are prepared to conclude with the Danish Government an agreement in the following terms :

(1) Irish citizens proceeding to Denmark shall not be required to obtain a visa precedent to entry into Denmark, provided they hold valid Irish Passports.

(2) Danish citizens proceeding to Ireland shall not be required to obtain a visa precedent to entry into Ireland, provided they hold valid Danish Passports.

(3) It is agreed that the abolition of the visa requirement on Passports does not dispense Irish citizens and Danish citizens, proceeding to Denmark and to Ireland respectively, from the obligation of complying with the Danish and Irish laws and regulations regarding the entry, short sojourn, residence or employment of aliens.

(4) Irish citizens and Danish citizens may stay in Denmark and in Ireland respectively without a visa, on the strength of their Passports only, for a period not exceeding three months, calculated from the day of their crossing the frontier, on condition that they do not take up any paid employment.

(5) This agreement shall not affect the rights of the competent authorities of the two countries to refuse admission to, or expel, any persons who may be regarded as undesirable, or who cannot satisfy the said authorities that they comply with the laws and regulations referred to under paragraph (3) above.

(6) Citizens of either country permanently resident, with proper authority, in the other country, shall not be required, by reason of temporary absence from their country

¹ Came into force on 15 May 1947, in accordance with the provisions of the said notes.
