No. 8215. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE SWISS CONFEDERATION AND THE REPUBLIC OF THE SUDAN ON AIR SERVICES BETWEEN AND BEYOND THEIR RESPECTIVE TERRITORIES. SIGNED AT KHARTOUM, ON 18 FEBRUARY 1963

The Swiss Federal Council and

The Government of the Republic of the Sudan,

Considering that Switzerland and the Sudan, hereafter referred to as the "Contracting Parties", are Parties to the Convention on International Civil Aviation opened for signature on the seventh day of December, 1944,² and

Desiring to conclude an Agreement supplementary to the said Convention for the purpose of regulating the establishment of air services between and beyond their respective territories,

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

For the purpose of the present Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires :

- a. the term "the Convention" means the Convention on International Civil Aviation opened for signature at Chicago on the seventh day of December, 1944 ;
- b. the term "aeronautical authorities" means, in the case of Switzerland the Federal Air Office and any person or body authorized to perform any functions at present exercised by the said Office or similar functions ; and, in the case of the Sudan, Minister of Communications and any person or body authorized to perform any function at present exercised by the said Minister or similar functions ;
- c. the term "designated airline" means an airline which one Contracting Party shall have designated, by written notification to the other Contracting Party, in accordance with Article III of the present Agreement, for the operation of one or more air services on the routes specified in the Schedule ;
- d. the "Schedule" to this Agreement shall be deemed to be part of the Agreement and all references to the Agreement shall include reference to the Schedule, except where otherwise expressly provided.

¹ Applied provisionally from 18 February 1963, the date of signature, and came into force on 21 September 1964, the date of an exchange of diplomatic notes confirming that the Contracting Parties had approved the Agreement in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures, in conformity with the provisions of article XIII.

² See footnote 2, p. 135 of this volume.

Article II

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party the rights specified in the present Agreement for the purpose of establishing air services on the routes specified in the appropriate Section of the Schedule thereto (hereinafter called "the agreed services" and "the specified routes").

2. Subject to the provision of the present Agreement, the airline designated by each Contracting Party shall enjoy, while operating an agreed service on a specified route, the following rights :

- a. to fly without landing across territory of the other Contracting Party ;
- b. to make stops in the said territory for non-traffic purposes ; and
- c. to make stops in the said territory at the points specified for that route in the Schedule to the present Agreement for the purpose of putting down and taking on international traffic in passengers, cargo and mail.

3. Nothing in Paragraph 2 of this Article shall be deemed to confer on the airline of one Contracting Party the right of taking up, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, passengers, cargo or mail carried for remuneration or hire and destined for another point in the territory of that other Contracting Party.

Article III

1. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to designate in writing to the other Contracting Party an airline for the purpose of operating the agreed services on any of the specified routes.

2. On receipt of the designation, the other Contracting Party shall, subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article, without delay grant to the airline designated, the appropriate operating authorization.

3. The aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party may require the airline designated by the other Contracting Party to satisfy them that it is qualified to fulfil the conditions prescribed under the laws and regulations normally and reasonably applied by them in conformity with the provisions of the Convention as apply to the operation of international commercial air services.

4. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to refuse to accept the designation of the airline and to withhold or revoke the grant to the airline of the rights specified in paragraph 2 of Article II of the present Agreement or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise by the airline of those rights in any case where it is not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in nationals of the Contracting Party designating the airline.

5. At any time after the provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article have been complied with, the airline so designated and authorized may begin to operate the agreed services provided that a service shall not be operated unless a tariff established in accordance with the provisions of Article VI of the present Agreement is in force in respect of that service.

6. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to suspend the exercise by the airline of the rights specified in Paragraph 2 of Article II of the present Agreement or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise by the airline of those rights in any case where the airline fails to comply with the laws or regulations of the Contracting Party granting those rights or otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed in the present Agreement ; provided that unless immediate suspension or imposition of conditions is essential to prevent further infringements of laws or regulations, this right shall be exercised after consultation with the other Contracting Party.

7. Action shall not be taken in pursuance of Paragraphs 4 and 6 of this Article before notice in writing of such proposed action, stating the grounds therefore, is given to the other Contracting Party and consultation between the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties has not led to agreement within a period of thirty days after the date of the said notice.

Article IV

Fuel, lubricating oils, spare parts, regular aircraft equipment and aircraft stores introduced into the territory of one Contracting Party, or taken on board aircraft in that territory, by or on behalf of the airline of the other Contracting Party and intended solely for use by or in the aircraft on the specified routes shall be accorded the following treatment by the first Contracting Party in respect of customs duties, inspection fees and other similar national or local duties and charges :

- a. in the case of fuel and lubricating oils remaining on board aircraft at the last airport of call before departure from the said territory : exemption ; and
- b. in the case of fuel and lubricating oils not included under a., and spare parts, regular aircraft equipment and aircraft stores : treatment not less favourable than that accorded to similar supplies introduced into the said territory, or taken on board aircraft in that territory, and intended for use by or in the aircraft of the national airline of the first Contracting Party, or of the most favoured foreign airline, engaged in international air services within that territory.

This treatment shall be in addition to and without prejudice to that which each Contracting Party is obliged to accord under Article 24 of the Convention.

Article V

1. There shall be fair and equal opportunity for the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties to operate the agreed services on the specified routes between their respective territories.

2. In operating the agreed services, the airline of each Contracting Party shall take into account the interests of the airline of the other Contracting Party so as not to affect unduly the services which the latter provides on the whole or part of the same routes.

3. The agreed services provided by the designated airlines of the Contracting Parties shall bear close relationship to the requirements of the public for transportation on the specified routes and shall have as their primary objective the provision, of capacity adequate to meet the current and reasonably anticipated requirements for the carriage of
