No. 15

London, October 27, 1966

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to discussions which have been held between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland concerning the question of indemnification for third party liability arising from the carriage in the United Kingdom or in British ships travelling to or from the United Kingdom of conventional-type ammunition owned by the United States Government. These discussions have resulted in agreement on the following points.

1. The Government of the United Kingdom shall, upon request of the United States authorities, continue to arrange for the handling and transport in the United Kingdom, or in British ships travelling to or from the United Kingdom, of conventional-type ammunition owned by the United States Government. The handling and transport shall be performed by shipowners, dock and harbor authorities, inland carriers and others in the United Kingdom, or in certain cases, directly by a Department of Her Majesty's Government.

2. To the extent necessary to effect the handling and transport described in the preceding paragraph, the Government of the United Kingdom shall
