No. 8795. BASIC AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION AND THE GOVERNMENT OF NEW ZEALAND FOR THE PROVISION OF TECHNICAL ADVISORY ASSISTANCE TO CERTAIN TERRITORIES FOR WHOSE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS NEW ZEALAND IS RESPONSIBLE. SIGNED AT MANILA, ON 24 APRIL 1967, AND AT WELLINGTON, ON 29 AUGUST 1967

The World Health Organization (hereinafter referred to as "the Organization"); and

The Government of New Zealand,

Desiring to give effect to the resolutions and decisions of the United Nations and of the Organization relating to technical advisory assistance, and to obtain mutual agreement concerning the purpose and scope of each project and the responsibilities which shall be assumed and the services which shall be provided;

Declaring that their mutual responsibilities shall be fulfilled in a spirit of friendly co-operation;

Have agreed as follows:

Article I

DEFINITIONS

In this Agreement:

"Territories for whose international relations New Zealand is responsible" means the Cook Islands, Niue and the Tokelau Islands;

"Territory" means the Cook Islands, Niue or the Tokelau Islands as the case may require;

"Government" means unless otherwise stated:

(a) in respect of assistance rendered or to be rendered within the Cook Islands, the Government of the Cook Islands;

¹ Came into force on 29 August 1967 by signature, in accordance with article VII (1).

- (b) in respect of assistance rendered or to be rendered within Niue or the Tokelau Islands, the Government of New Zealand.

Article II

FURNISHING OF TECHNICAL ADVISORY ASSISTANCE

1. The Organization shall render technical advisory assistance to those territories for whose international relations New Zealand is responsible, subject to budgetary limitation or the availability of the necessary funds. The Organization and the New Zealand Government shall co-operate in arranging, on the basis of the requests received from the New Zealand Government and approved by the Organization, mutually agreeable plans of operation for the carrying out of the technical advisory assistance.
2. Such technical advisory assistance shall be furnished and received in accordance with the relevant resolutions and decisions of the World Health Assembly, the Executive Board and other organs of the Organization.
3. Such technical advisory assistance may consist of:
 - (a) making available the services of advisers in order to render advice and assistance to or through the Government;
 - (b) organizing and conducting seminars, training programmes, demonstration projects, expert working groups and related activities in such places as may be mutually agreed;
 - (c) awarding scholarships and fellowships or making other arrangements under which candidates nominated by the Government and approved by the Organization shall study or receive training outside the territory;
 - (d) preparing and executing pilot projects, tests, experiments or research in such places as may be mutually agreed upon;
 - (e) providing any other form of technical advisory assistance which may be agreed upon by the Organization and the New Zealand Government.
4. (a) Advisers who are to render advice and assistance to or through the Government shall be selected by the Organization in consultation with the Government. They shall be responsible to the Organization;
 - (b) in the performance of their duties, the advisers shall act in close consultation with the Government and with persons or bodies so authorized by the Government, and shall comply with instructions from the Government
