No. 8839. TREATY¹ OF FRIENDSHIP AND CO-OPERATION
BETWEEN THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC AND
THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF BULGARIA. SIGNED AT ULAN BATOR, ON 21 JULY 1967

The Mongolian People's Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria,

Noting that friendly co-operation between the two countries in the political, economic and cultural fields has produced fruitful results for the benefit of the Mongolian and Bulgarian peoples,

Guided by the sincere desire of the peoples of both countries to develop and intensify further the brotherly friendship and the relations of all-round co-operation and fraternal mutual assistance between the Mongolian People's Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria on the basis of the principles of socialist internationalism,

Deeply convinced that the further development of relations between the two countries is fully in accordance with the vital interests of the Mongolian and Bulgarian peoples and will serve to strengthen the socialist community,

Resolved to further in every possible way the consolidation of peace and international security in accordance with the Purposes and Principles of the Charter of the United Nations, on the basis of consistent adherence to the policy of peaceful coexistence between States with different social systems,

Have decided to conclude this Treaty and have agreed as follows :

Article 1

The High Contracting Parties shall continue to strengthen the unshakable friendship between the Mongolian and Bulgarian peoples and to develop all-round co-operation and fraternal mutual assistance between the two countries on the basis of the principles of socialist internationalism, full equality of rights, respect for each other's State sovereignty and non-interference in each other's internal affairs.

Article 2

The High Contracting Parties shall continue to develop and intensify economic, scientific and technical co-operation in accordance with the principles

¹ Came into force on 13 September 1967, the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification at Sofia, in accordance with article 10.
