No. 9033. CULTURAL CONVENTION¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND THE ROYAL GOVERNMENT OF AFGHANISTAN. SIGNED AT KABUL, ON 19 APRIL 1965

The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Royal Government of Afghanistan;

Desiring to continue and strengthen the harmonious and cordial relations existing between the peoples of their countries and to further the spirit of the Charter of the United Nations, which affirms international cultural and educational co-operation among the purposes of the United Nations;

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

(a) For the purpose of this Convention the terms "territory" and "country" shall mean in relation to the Government of the United Kingdom, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and, in relation to the Royal Government of Afghanistan, the Kingdom of Afghanistan.

(b) The expression "nationals" shall mean, in relation to the Government of the United Kingdom, citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies, British subjects under Section 2 of the British Nationality Act, 1948, and British subjects without citizenship under Section 13 (1) of that Act, provided that in all cases they are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. In relation to the Royal Government of Afghanistan, it shall mean citizens of Afghanistan.

Article II

The Contracting Governments shall mutually encourage and promote to the maximum extent scientific and cultural co-operation between the two countries through such means as the following :

(a) the exchange of university professors, instructors, and persons engaged in scientific and technical research, including provision of the necessary facilities for all such persons;

¹ Came into force on 30 November 1967, the fifteenth day after the exchange of the instruments of ratification which took place at London on 15 November 1967, in accordance with article XI.
