ARGENTINE REPUBLIC AND THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES. SIGNED AT BUENOS AIRES, ON 26 JANUARY 1960

The Government of the Argentine Republic and the Government of the United Mexican States, desirous of strengthening still further the bonds of friendship between them;

Considering that the relations between their peoples can be made closer through the dissemination of information on the progress made in each of the two States in thought, science and art; and

Realizing that the spiritual heritage of both countries lends itself to a fruitful exchange between their nationals and cultural organizations;

Have decided to conclude an Agreement for the attainment of the above-mentioned purposes and to this end have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

The Argentine Republic: His Excellency Dr. Diógenes Taboada, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Public Worship; and the United Mexican States: His Excellency Mr. Manuel Tello, Minister for Foreign Affairs, who having exchanged their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:
