No. 9176. TRADE AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE AND THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL. SIGNED AT SINGAPORE, ON 24 APRIL 1968

The Government of the Republic of Singapore and the Government of Israel desiring to strengthen and develop the economic and trade relations between the two countries on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, have agreed as follows:

Article I

The Government of the Republic of Singapore and the Government of Israel shall, in accordance with and subject to the laws and regulations in force in either country, encourage the exports from and imports into their respective countries.

Article II

1. Each Party shall accord to the other Party most favoured nation treatment to the goods and commodities of the other Party. The said treatment shall apply to all questions relating to customs, duties, expenses, and other formality payments; it shall also be applied to all import licences, subject always to the provisions of Article I hereof.

2. This treatment shall also be applied to ships and aeroplanes of both countries with respect to port dues to be collected and privileges to be accorded, when entering or leaving the harbours or airports, as well as to the rules prevailing on the stay of ships and aeroplanes whilst in the harbour or airports.

3. The above provisions shall not apply to advantages and facilities accorded by either of the two countries to contiguous countries and to advantages and facilities resulting from a customs union to which either of the two countries is or may become a Party and shall also not apply to preferences accorded by the Republic of Singapore to Commonwealth countries, and the Republic of Ireland.
