No. 9293. AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE BENELUX COUNTRIES AND THE GAMBIA ON THE ABOLITION OF VISAS. SIGNED AT BATHURST ON 27 MARCH 1968

The Governments of the Benelux countries acting jointly under the Agreement between the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands signed at Brussels on 11 April 1960² concerning the transfer of immigration control to the outer frontiers of Benelux, and

The Government of The Gambia,

Desirous of further simplifying the travel formalities for their respective nationals and of adapting them to the situation that has arisen as a result of the transfer of immigration control to the outer frontiers of Benelux,

Have agreed as follows :

Article 1

In this Agreement the term “Benelux countries” shall mean : the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands;

the term “Benelux territory” shall mean : the joint territories in Europe of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Article 2

Nationals of the Benelux countries who are holders of a valid national passport may, irrespective of the point of their departure enter The Gambia without a visa and stay for a period not exceeding three months. No guaranty shall be demanded, and the valid national passport shall also be the sole document required when leaving that country.

Article 3

Nationals of The Gambia who are holders of a valid national passport may, irrespective of the point of their departure, enter Benelux territory without a visa and stay for a period not exceeding three months. No guaranty shall be demanded, ¹ Came into force on 1 May 1968, in accordance with article 10.
