I

The Royal Danish Consul General to the Secretary of the Department of External Affairs

ROYAL DANISH CONSULATE GENERAL

Dublin, the 18th November, 1947

Sir,

With reference to the Air Transport Agreement between Denmark and Ireland provisionally concluded in Dublin in October 1946, I have the honour to bring to your knowledge that on account of the entering into force of the Convention on International Civil Aviation, signed at Chicago on the 7th December, 1944,² which Convention has been ratified by Ireland as well as Denmark, my Government proposes that Articles 7, 9 and 11 of the text of that Agreement be amended accordingly.

The text of the agreement, as so amended, reads as follows:

The agreed services may be inaugurated immediately or at a later date at the option of the contracting party to whom the rights are granted.

Article 2

(1) Each of the agreed services may be put into operation as soon as the contracting party to whom the rights have been granted has designated an airline or airlines for the specified route or routes and the contracting party granting the rights shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Article and of Article 6, be bound to grant without delay the appropriate operating permission to the airline(s) concerned.

(2) The airline(s) designated may be required to satisfy the competent aeronautical authorities of the contracting party granting the rights that it (they) is (are) qualified to fulfil the conditions prescribed under the laws and regulations normally applied by these authorities to the operations of commercial airlines.

Article 3

(1) The charges which either of the contracting parties may impose, or permit to be imposed, on the designated airline(s) of the other contracting party for the use of airports and other facilities shall not be higher than would be paid for the use of such airports and facilities by its national aircraft engaged in similar international services.

(2) Fuel, lubricating oils and spare parts introduced into or taken on board aircraft in the territory of one contracting party by, or on behalf of, the other contracting party or its designated airline(s) and intended solely for use by the aircraft of the other contracting party shall be accorded, with respect to customs duties, inspection fees or other charges imposed by the former contracting party, treatment not less favourable than that granted to national airline(s) engaged in international air transport or the airline(s) of the most favoured nation.

(3) Aircraft operated on the agreed services and supplies of fuel, lubricating oils, spare parts, regular equipment and aircraft stores retained on board aircraft of the designated airline(s) of one contracting party shall be exempt in the territory of the other contracting party from customs duties, inspection fees or
