[TRADUCTION — TRANSLATION]

AGREEMENT ¹ BETWEEN THE BENELUX COUNTRIES AND YUGOSLAVIA RELATING TO THE ABOLITION OF THE VISA

The Governments of the Benelux States, acting jointly by virtue of the Convention between the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands on the transfer of control of persons to the external frontiers of Benelux territory, signed at Brussels, on 11 April 1960, ² and

The Government of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia,
Desiring to facilitate the movement of their nationals in the territories of the other Contracting Parties,
Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

Under the terms of this Agreement,

“the Benelux countries” shall mean the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands;

“the territory of Benelux” shall mean the whole of the European territories of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Article 2

Nationals of the Benelux countries may, irrespective of their point of origin and for a stay not exceeding three months, including transit, enter Yugoslavia without a visa through all frontier posts open to international traffic, the sole requirement being a valid national passport and without any deposit of security being required. Possession of such a passport is also the sole requirement for their departure from the territory.

Article 3

Nationals of Yugoslavia may, irrespective of their point of origin and for a stay not exceeding three months, including transit, enter the territory of Benelux without a visa through all frontier posts open to international traffic, the sole requirement being a valid national passport and without any deposit of security being required. Possession of such a passport is also the sole requirement for their departure from the territory.

¹ Came into force on 3 July 1969, i.e., fifteen days after its signature in accordance with article 11.
