LABOUR ORGANISATION AND THE ORGANIZATION OF
CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES. SIGNED AT GENEVA
AND MEXICO, ON 26 JULY 1965

PREAMBLE

The International Labour Organisation and the Organisation of Central American States,

Desirous of establishing a satisfactory basis for co-operation in a joint effort to contribute to economic development and the improvement of the living and working conditions of the population in the countries of Central America,

Recognising that such co-operation should find expression in deeds and practical action,

Have agreed as follows :

Article I

MUTUAL CONSULTATION

1. The International Labour Organisation and the Organisation of Central American States will consult on matters of common interest for the purpose of realising their objectives in the social and economic fields and avoiding unnecessary duplication of work.

2. The International Labour Organisation will inform the Organisation of Central American States of the development of its work and of any plans of the International Labour Office for carrying out its activities in the countries of the region. The International Labour Organisation will consider any observations concerning such plans which may be communicated to it by the Organisation of Central American States with a view to achieving effective co-ordination between the two organisations.

3. The Organisation of Central American States will inform the International Labour Organisation of the developments of its work and of any plans of the Organi-
