AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION AND THE UNITED NATIONS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

Article 1. CO-OPERATION AND CONSULTATION

1. The International Labour Organisation (hereinafter referred to as ILO) and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (hereinafter referred to as UNIDO) agree that, with a view to facilitating the effective attainment of the objectives set forth in their respective constitutional instruments, within the general framework established by the Charter of the United Nations, they shall recognise their respective spheres of competence. They shall act in close co-operation with each other and they shall consult with each other regularly in regard to matters of common interest.

2. ILO and UNIDO recognise that their activities in relation to industrial development are complementary to each other and call for close and continuing co-operation, according to detailed arrangements to be agreed upon in the light of the operating experience of the two organisations.

3. ILO and UNIDO shall keep each other fully informed of programmes and activities which they propose to initiate on subjects in which the other organisation has or may have a substantive interest.

Article 2. RECIPROCAL REPRESENTATION

1. Representatives of ILO shall be invited to attend the sessions of the General Conference of UNIDO and its Committees, sessions of the Industrial Development Board and its Committees and other meetings convened under the auspices of UNIDO which consider matters in which ILO has an interest, and to participate without the right to vote in the deliberations of these bodies on matters of particular concern to ILO.

2. Representatives of UNIDO shall be invited to attend the sessions of the International Labour Conference and its Committees, of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office and its Committees and other meetings convened under the auspices of ILO which consider matters in which UNIDO has an interest, and to participate without the right to vote in the deliberations of these bodies on matters of particular concern to UNIDO.

Article 3. EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION, DATA AND DOCUMENTS

Subject to such arrangements as may be necessary for the safeguarding of confidential material, the fullest and promptest exchange of information, data and documents shall be made between ILO and UNIDO.

¹ Came into force on 14 September 1987 by its signature by the Director-General of the International Labour Office and the Director-General of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, after it had been approved by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office on 29 May 1987 and by the Industrial Development Board of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization on 3 July 1987, in accordance with article 12.
