AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO CONCERNING TECHNICAL AND SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION

The Government of the Republic of India and the Government of the Republic of Trinidad & Tobago on the basis of friendly relations existing between the two States and their peoples,
Considering their common interest in promoting economic and social progress of their States and peoples,
Desiring to intensify their relations through technical and scientific cooperation in a spirit of partnership,
Recognising the benefit to be derived by both States from closer technical cooperation,
Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

The two Governments shall endeavour to cooperate and support each other, within the limits of their capabilities, on technical and scientific matters that may mutually be agreed upon. Such technical and scientific cooperation shall be on a basis of equal partnership and mutual benefit.

ARTICLE 2

In order to achieve the objectives referred to in Article 1 of this Agreement, the following activities shall be undertaken:

- (a) Exchange of information on technical and scientific, organisational and management matters as well as information on existing training facilities in technical, industrial and educational institutions;
- (b) Exchange of advisers, experts, technicians, scholarships and fellows;
- (c) Provide training for the common interest in fields agreed upon by both Governments;
- (d) Execution of joint research for the common interest agreed upon by both Governments;

¹ Came into force on 25 September 1987, the date of the exchange of notifications by which the Parties informed each other of the fulfilment of the required constitutional procedures, in accordance with article 8.
